Debt Limit Boosted To 295 Billion

Sixth Time Since Eisenhower Took Office In 1953

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the sixth time since President Eisenhower took office in 1953, the House has passed a bill raising the ceiling on the national debt.

This time it is a peacetime top of 295 billion dollars. That was exceeded only by a temporary ceiling of 300 billion dollars during World War II, but the actual debt then was smaller than it is today.

Grumbling and blame - laying, House members Friday sent the booster bill to the Senate by a vote of 255-117. There it is expected to run into further opposition, but pass in the end.

Heavy House opposition meant protests in both Republican and Democratic parties over increased government borrowing at a time when the budget already is 13 billion dollars in the red.

House leaders who backed the bill noted that some nay votes were cast by members who have been among the strongest supporters of big spending measures.

"Some of the fellows wanted to claim at least one economy vote on their record," one Democratic leader observed.

It was the third time in the past 18 months that President Eisenhower has requested a raise in the debt ceiling.

House leaders said that a fiscal emergency exists, and that failure to vote the Treasury more borrowing power would endanger the government's credit and solvency.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills (D-Ark), floor manager of the bill, said the bill must become law by midnight June 30 if the government is to meet obligations falling due in excess of the present debt limit.

The 295 billion top is a temporary one-year ceiling. It would revert on June 30, 1960, to a new "permanent" limit of 285 billions. It is expected the Treasury will seek another temporary rise at that time.

The present permanent limit is 283 billions. The present temporary limit, in effect until June 30 of this year, is 288 billions.

The actual debt currently stands at around 286 billion dollars.

Democrats blamed the situation on the administration's tight money policy. They said it restricted credit and contributed to the 1957-58 recession.

Republicans blamed what they called Democratic "spenders and budget busters."

Some members of both parties urged mandatory budget balancing and annual payments to reduce the debt.

Fresh Period Of Tensions Is Predicted

Big 4 Aides Agree To Break Off Talks For Three Weeks

GENEVA (AP) — The Big Four foreign ministers today recessed their conference until July 13 without breaking the East-West deadlock on Berlin.

Western officials forecast a new Soviet drive for the summit following the failure of the talks. They said Soviet Premier Khrushchev is trying to frighten the Western powers into a summit conference instead of offering concessions on Berlin as a lure to the West.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and other Western diplomats are reported to have decided two weeks ago that this was Khrushchev's strategy. Western interest in breaking off the negotiations here dates from that time.

The West came to Geneva believing it held one trump card—Khrushchev's desire for a summit meeting.

In Herter's view, the foreign ministers' conference took a bad turn about two weeks ago when Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko proposed a one-year time limit on Western occupation of West Berlin. The West denounced this as a Soviet ultimatum.

The negotiating line followed here by Gromyko is regarded by the Western leaders as having borne out their estimate of Khrushchev's strategy. They think it probably means the Soviet Premier considers the Western position weak and feels he doesn't have to bargain away anything to get a summit conference.

One reason for such a conclusion would be the obvious split in the Western camp between President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Eisenhower has taken the position that nothing produced so far by the Geneva conference justifies a summit session. Macmillan believes, as he has all along, that failure here makes a meeting at the summit even more necessary.

Reviewing the six weeks of negotiations here, Western authorities insisted that Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville had given away nothing of substance to the Russians.

They did not want to remain here any longer and watch the Russians try to whittle down the Western position on Berlin without offering any concessions of their own.

The Western decision to break off the negotiations was made firm yesterday after Gromyko introduced new compromise proposals for a Berlin settlement. Herter, Lloyd and Couve de Murville decided that in spite of some

Steelworkers' Aide Praised By Lawrence

Governor Speaks At District 20 Session Staged At Midland

Gov. David L. Lawrence praised steelworkers in general and Bert Hough in particular when he spoke briefly as a highlight of today's session of District 20 of the United Steelworkers of America at Midland.

He subbed for David McDonald, president of big steel union, who had hoped to appear but remained tied up in the critical contract negotiations with "Big Steel."

The governor, ever his smiling self, declared:

"I have always enjoyed associating with men who work with their hands because in them there is virility, the strength and the quality of men who have made Pennsylvania and our nation great and powerful."

Then he turned to Bert, as he is known familiary among the 41,000 steelworkers in the district's 41 locals.

Bert Hough has been director of District 20 since shortly after 1936 when the "big trouble" started as the CIO began organizing the mills.

"There are few men in our midst today who combine as many good qualities of humanity and leadership as your district director, for whom my affection is deep-rooted and of long standing.

"His Irish heritage and his Scottish birthright have given him the morality, the wisdom, the steadfastness and the determination which are typical of that rich background. To many of us, he furnishes a close memory of the late and beloved Phil Murray, his comrade in the labor movement for long and productive years.

"I can think of no higher compliment for any man than to say he has the same qualities, the same drive and enthusiasm, the same devotion to principle as did Phil Murray.

"Bert Hough is such a man, a man whose life has been one of driving action and dedicated service to his fellow-men, to his country and to his God."

Howard R. Hague, vice president, received a standing ovation Friday afternoon following his speech concerning the contract negotiations in New York. He attached the steel industry's issues of foreign imports and inflation.

He said that foreign imports make up less than 3 per cent of the entire capacity of the steel industry and the price of foreign steel today is quoted exactly the same as American industries.

As for inflation, he quoted from 'Barron's' of June 8, "The fate of the dollar will be settled not in New York City or Pittsburgh, but in Washington, D.C.' "

Hague said "while the Industry hides behind the cloak of inflation and foreign trade, what they really want to do is take all of your benefits away from you."

As for the "poor stockholder," Hague said, his $5,000 investment 22 years ago is now worth $69,432 compared to $68,600 earned by the average steelworker who gave his life, sweat and blood.

John Grajcier, director of District 21, also reported on New York negotiations and said the industry was trying to give "a rabbit for a horse."

Other speakers yesterday included Burgess Eli Corak, Joe D'Alesio, president of local 1212, Kay

Council Clears Sewer Project In Beechwood

Two of the final legislative hurdles for a blanket sanitary sewer project in the Beechwood residential area were cleared by City Council at an adjourned meeting Friday night.

By a 6-0 vote, Council gave approval to 2 emergency ordinances officially determining to proceed with the project and authorizing a $60,000 bond issue to pay the city's share of the work and to finance the balance of the construction in advance of the collection of special assessments from property-owners.

As in all such projects, the legislation provides that the $60,000 will be borrowed first on one-year notes, which later will be converted into bonds that will be amortized over 5 years. Property-owners have the option of paying special assessments in cash or in five annual installments, plus interest. As they make their payments, the bonds are retired.

The determining ordinance also authorizes the administration to contract for construction of the sewers as soon as funds are available. The project will cover sections of Beechwood St., Camp Alley, Center St., Division Alley, Reynolds St., Buxton Alley, Haywood St., Vernia St. and Broad St.

Plans for the work have been under way at least five years. On several occasions the City Health Board condemned unsanitary conditions in Beechwood and urged that a sewer project be undertaken, as most of the area now is served by septic tanks. The first enabling legislation was approved last March 16.

As both pieces of legislation contain emergency clauses, they went into effect immediately after they were signed last night by Mayor Fred P. Lawrence. Without the emergency clause, there would be a 30-day wait before the ordinances took effect.

In other business, Council enacted an ordinance extending until July 31 the post of temporary city electrician. The job is held by Fred Kane, who was hired more than a year ago after City Electrician Raymond Cowles suffered a disabling stroke.

Louisiana's Officials At Loggerheads

Who's Governor? They Ask As Long Plots New Move

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Louisiana officials were at loggerheads today as to who was the state's chief executive since Gov. Earl Long indicated he may be plotting another court battle to free himself from court - ordered treatment in a mental hospital.

Lt. Gov. Lether Frazar, a friend of the 63-year-old ailing governor, said he wants legal advice before formally taking over as acting governor. Secretary of State Wade Martin Jr., a political enemy of Long, said he would continue to recognize Long as governor. He challenged Frazar's right to take over without formal certification of Long's inability to act.

"Governor Long has been irresponsible for some time but there has been no legal declaration of that," Martin said.

Long called for legal counsel from his ward at the Southeast Louisiana Hospital at Mandeville, 54 miles to the east of this capital city where he and his brother, the late Huey P. Long, began thriving on peppery politics in the 1920s.

State police and sheriff's deputies overpowered the cursing, fighting governor Thursday night and rushed him to Mandeville. A physician and a psychiatrist said he suffered from paranoiac schizophrenia—delusions of persecution.

Long had just skipped out on an agreement for voluntary treatment in New Orleans. The agreement had nullified a Texas court fight by effecting his Wednesday release from a Galveston psychiatric clinic. He had been held in the clinic 19 days by court order.

Martin said he would challenge Frazer in court if the 54-year-old former president of McNeese State College attempted to act as governor.

Frazar said he would not shirk his duty if an emergency develops. But he wants legal advice before formally taking over.

Atty. Gen. Jack Gremillion said Frazar could take over. Martin disagreed, saying the court order that sent Long to Mandeville did not declare the governor's inability to act. Long himself or some official body, Martin said, first must certify Long's inability.

Hearing Due Autoist Nabbed At Roadblock

LISBON — A Lisbon motorist will face a hearing this evening before Mayor John Todd in connection with an attempt to escape from village police around 3 a. m. He was apprehended in a roadblock set up on Route 30 near West Point by the sheriff's patrol.

Lon E. Bruner, 24, of 422 N. Market St., was cited for driving while intoxicated, driving while his license was under revocation and failure to obey a police officer.

Officer Leon Zahrndt was called to E. Lincoln Way on complaint of a horn blowing. When he got out of the police cruiser to investigate the car sped away. He gave pursuit over most of the streets in the East End then radioed for a roadblock when Bruner escaped south on Route 30.

Weather 'Warms Up' For Outing Of Potters

The Ohio weatherman co-operated with the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters today, warming up temperatures to the highest mark in a week for the union's annual outing at Meyers Lake Park at Canton. Skies were partly cloudy but no rain was seen.

The forecast is for high of 78 to 85 today and a low tonight of only 50 to 55. Dam 8 at Newell recorded a high of 78 Friday. Sunday will be fair but not so warm.

Tomorrow is the last day of spring with summer due to arrive officially at 11:50 p. m.

Lama Would Welcome Nehru-Chou Meeting

MUSSOORIE, India (AP) — The self-exiled Dalai Lama of Tibet said today he would welcome a meeting between Prime Minister Nehru of India and Premier Chou En-lai of Red China to thresh out a solution to the Tibetan problem.

The fugitive god-king told his first news conference since he arrived in India two months ago that he was undecided about his future but would not stay in India indefinitely.

City's Parking Lot Proposal Meets Delay

Opposition Of Tullis Forces Council To Defer Final Action

A lone dissenting vote Friday night held up final Council action on legislation to clear the way for acquiring business property on W. 6th St. opposite City Hall for conversion into a metered parking lot, first step in a long - range plan to spot such facilities throughout the shopping district.

With one member absent and a "no" vote from Councilman H. A. Tullis of the First Ward, Council was able to muster only five affirmative votes — but enough to give the first of three required readings to an ordinance for purchase of a two - story frame structure and its lot 35-x-130 feet, former site of the Bennett Grocery and the Instant Lunch.

Second reading of the ordinance is scheduled at the next regular meeting July 6. Unless at least 6 favorable votes are mustered then, the legislation will be held over until July 20 for the third reading and final passage.

Plans for acquisition of the lot were announced Friday by Mayor Fred P. Lawrence, although they had been discussed informally by Council, administration spokesmen and William B. Cooper, chairman of the City Traffic Commission, at a caucus Monday night.

Tullis, who did not attend the meeting Monday night, argued he had been able to consider the enabling legislation only since 5 p.m., Friday, when he arrived home from work and found copies mailed to him by Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper. He said he was not prepared to vote on the ordinance so quickly and asked for more time to consider it. He recommended action on the legislation be held up until the meeting July 6.

But after more discussion, in which several members argued immediate action to make certain the property will not be sold to another purchaser, the legislation was given first reading, 5-1.

Six affirmative votes are required to pass an emergency ordinance under suspension of rules at a single meeting. Councilman George E. Willshaw was absent last night.

Strauss Snub Jars Leaders In Commerce

WASHINGTON (AP)— The historic Senate vote of no confidence in Lewis L. Strauss has given a new jolt to a Commerce Department high command already beset by uncertainty.

The 49-46 Senate vote rejecting Strauss as secretary of commerce came as the secretary's office faced a prospect of personnel cuts by Congress.

High officials said 51 employes out of a total of about 300 in the secretary's office have been put on notice that their jobs may be abolished on June 30. These notices went out after the House voted to cut $440,000 from the $2,940,000 President Eisenhower asked for running the office.

Earlier this week the Senate Appropriations Committee voted to restore $260,000 but the question is still up in the air, but even so, some 25 employes would have to be fired.

There was speculation that with Strauss on his way out the House might now be willing to provide more salary money. But it was unlikely the amount finally voted would exceed the Senate figure.

4 Are Injured In Series Of City Accidents

Midland Youth Held After One Mishap Involving His Auto

Four persons were injured in two traffic accidents Friday afternoon, police reported, and a Midland youth was charged with drunken driving after a one-car crash early this morning.

Three were hurt after the brakes reportedly failed on a car operated by a Salineville woman which struck a parked car and hit a fence on Bradshaw Ave. about 4:15 p. m.

Louise Johnson, 78 W. Main St., Salineville, told police she was driving a car owned by M. & A. Motors, 1273 Pennsylvania Ave.

She said she was rounding a curve and started to apply the brakes but the foot pedal went all the way to the floor. There was no response when she pumped the brake, the woman added.

Mrs. Johnson said she attempted to maneuver the car toward the curb but struck a parked car owned by James N. Harris, 711

Surmounts Grave Crisis

President Of Argentina Given Vote Of Confidence

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Arturo Frondizi remains president of Argentina after surmounting — at least temporarily — the gravest crisis of his 14-month administration.

But the price he paid remains to be seen.

Following waves of tension touched off by military plotters, a meeting of top army brass Friday night voted confidence in the president't war ministry.

Frondizi, grim faced and tired, met newsmen to say he was still performing his presidential duties. But he did not indicate what concession he made the militarists for their support.

Announcement also was made that two alleged leaders of the plot had agreed to submit to detention on sedition charges.

They were Rear Adm. Arturo Rial, hero of the revolution that overthrew ex-dictator Juan Peron, and retired Lt. Gen. Arturo Ossorio Arana. The government ordered their arrest Wednesday, but security forces had been unable to find them.

Informed sources said Rial and Ossorio Arana led a military group that felt Frondizi had not dealt severely enough with Peron backers. They were said to have demanded the ouster of all government officials with Peronista leanings and strong measures against labor leaders who have called countless strikes that plague the national economy.

On Third Day Of Trip

Queen On Canadian Tour Shows Signs Of Weariness

CORNER BROOK, Nfld. (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II, working nearly 12 hours a day on her tour of Canada, is already showing signs of weariness.

The queen and Prince Philip are passing through the "wilderness leg" of their six weeks journey, inspecting logging and paper-making operations and flying deep into the heart of Labrador today to descend into an iron mine.

The royal couple began the third day of their trip—and for the Queen it's not easy going.

The Queen dedicated a huge international air terminal at Gander Friday, shook nearly a thousand hands at a reception and trudged for nearly a hour through the noisy heat of the great Bowater paper mill.

Elizabeth looked tired during the morning and there were lines around her wide blue eyes. She smiled seldom and spoke little to persons presented.

In the afternoon, however, she seemed more spirited and her famed smile began flashing again.

But, if it is hard work for the Queen, it is sheer delight for the people of Newfoundland.

The royal party drove through the beautiful northern forests past little settlements that were hardly more than clearings in the woods.

But each little cluster of homes and stores was gaily decked out with flags and pennants.

Loggers and their families waited for hours beside the dusty road to catch a glimpse of the royal car.

Annual Homecoming Awaited At Wellsville

The Wellsville volunteer fire department's annual week-long homecoming celebration will open Monday.

Jack E. Phillips, chairman, said the event will be climaxed with a parade Friday night and that the final day of the carnival will be Saturday.

The Gambill Amusement Co. of Wintersville will provide the rides. The carnival will be set up at Central Park and will open Monday at 6 p. m. Rides will include a merry-go-round, ferris wheel, octopus, roller coaster, children's airplanes, cars, train and ponies.

Phillips said more musical units are expected to enter the parade this year, along with the usual number of marching units and fire equipment.

Debt Limit Boosted To 295 Billion

Sixth Time Since Eisenhower Took Office In 1953

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the sixth time since President Eisenhower took office in 1953, the House has passed a bill raising the ceiling on the national debt.

This time it is a peacetime top of 295 billion dollars. That was exceeded only by a temporary ceiling of 300 billion dollars during World War II, but the actual debt then was smaller than it is today.

Grumbling and blame - laying, House members Friday sent the booster bill to the Senate by a vote of 255-117. There it is expected to run into further opposition, but pass in the end.

Heavy House opposition meant protests in both Republican and Democratic parties over increased government borrowing at a time when the budget already is 13 billion dollars in the red.

House leaders who backed the bill noted that some nay votes were cast by members who have been among the strongest supporters of big spending measures.

"Some of the fellows wanted to claim at least one economy vote on their record," one Democratic leader observed.

It was the third time in the past 18 months that President Eisenhower has requested a raise in the debt ceiling.

House leaders said that a fiscal emergency exists, and that failure to vote the Treasury more borrowing power would endanger the government's credit and solvency.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills (D-Ark), floor manager of the bill, said the bill must become law by midnight June 30 if the government is to meet obligations falling due in excess of the present debt limit.

The 295 billion top is a temporary one-year ceiling. It would revert on June 30, 1960, to a new "permanent" limit of 285 billions. It is expected the Treasury will seek another temporary rise at that time.

The present permanent limit is 283 billions. The present temporary limit, in effect until June 30 of this year, is 288 billions.

The actual debt currently stands at around 286 billion dollars.

Democrats blamed the situation on the administration's tight money policy. They said it restricted credit and contributed to the 1957-58 recession.

Republicans blamed what they called Democratic "spenders and budget busters."

Some members of both parties urged mandatory budget balancing and annual payments to reduce the debt.

Western Diplomats See New Red Drive For Summit Parley

SIGN OBEYED. This helicopter did just what the sign said, "STOP." The pilot of the craft was Mark White, 30, of Tulsa, Okla., enroute to spray some rice fields. He said he was flying some 400-500 feet above the city when his engine failed. The craft hit some trees and a parked car. No one was injured. (UPI Telephoto)

Fresh Period Of Tensions Is Predicted

Big 4 Aides Agree To Break Off Talks For Three Weeks

GENEVA (AP) — The Big Four foreign ministers today recessed their conference until July 13 without breaking the East-West deadlock on Berlin.

Western officials forecast a new Soviet drive for the summit following the failure of the talks. They said Soviet Premier Khrushchev is trying to frighten the Western powers into a summit conference instead of offering concessions on Berlin as a lure to the West.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and other Western diplomats are reported to have decided two weeks ago that this was Khrushchev's strategy. Western interest in breaking off the negotiations here dates from that time.

The West came to Geneva believing it held one trump card—Khrushchev's desire for a summit meeting.

In Herter's view, the foreign ministers' conference took a bad turn about two weeks ago when Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko proposed a one-year time limit on Western occupation of West Berlin. The West denounced this as a Soviet ultimatum.

The negotiating line followed here by Gromyko is regarded by the Western leaders as having borne out their estimate of Khrushchev's strategy. They think it probably means the Soviet Premier considers the Western position weak and feels he doesn't have to bargain away anything to get a summit conference.

One reason for such a conclusion would be the obvious split in the Western camp between President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Eisenhower has taken the position that nothing produced so far by the Geneva conference justifies a summit session. Macmillan believes, as he has all along, that failure here makes a meeting at the summit even more necessary.

Reviewing the six weeks of negotiations here, Western authorities insisted that Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville had given away nothing of substance to the Russians.

They did not want to remain here any longer and watch the Russians try to whittle down the Western position on Berlin without offering any concessions of their own.

The Western decision to break off the negotiations was made firm yesterday after Gromyko introduced new compromise proposals for a Berlin settlement. Herter, Lloyd and Couve de Murville decided that in spite of some

City's Parking Lot Proposal Meets Delay

Opposition Of Tullis Forces Council To Defer Final Action

A lone dissenting vote Friday night held up final Council action on legislation to clear the way for acquiring business property on W. 6th St. opposite City Hall for conversion into a metered parking lot, first step in a long - range plan to spot such facilities throughout the shopping district.

With one member absent and a "no" vote from Councilman H. A. Tullis of the First Ward, Council was able to muster only five affirmative votes — but enough to give the first of three required readings to an ordinance for purchase of a two - story frame structure and its lot 35-x-130 feet, former site of the Bennett Grocery and the Instant Lunch.

Second reading of the ordinance is scheduled at the next regular meeting July 6. Unless at least 6 favorable votes are mustered then, the legislation will be held over until July 20 for the third reading and final passage.

Plans for acquisition of the lot were announced Friday by Mayor Fred P. Lawrence, although they had been discussed informally by Council, administration spokesmen and William B. Cooper, chairman of the City Traffic Commission, at a caucus Monday night.

Tullis, who did not attend the meeting Monday night, argued he had been able to consider the enabling legislation only since 5 p.m., Friday, when he arrived home from work and found copies mailed to him by Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper. He said he was not prepared to vote on the ordinance so quickly and asked for more time to consider it. He recommended action on the legislation be held up until the meeting July 6.

But after more discussion, in which several members argued immediate action to make certain the property will not be sold to another purchaser, the legislation was given first reading, 5-1.

Six affirmative votes are required to pass an emergency ordinance under suspension of rules at a single meeting. Councilman George E. Willshaw was absent last night.

Strauss Snub Jars Leaders In Commerce

WASHINGTON (AP)— The historic Senate vote of no confidence in Lewis L. Strauss has given a new jolt to a Commerce Department high command already beset by uncertainty.

The 49-46 Senate vote rejecting Strauss as secretary of commerce came as the secretary's office faced a prospect of personnel cuts by Congress.

High officials said 51 employes out of a total of about 300 in the secretary's office have been put on notice that their jobs may be abolished on June 30. These notices went out after the House voted to cut $440,000 from the $2,940,000 President Eisenhower asked for running the office.

Earlier this week the Senate Appropriations Committee voted to restore $260,000 but the question is still up in the air, but even so, some 25 employes would have to be fired.

There was speculation that with Strauss on his way out the House might now be willing to provide more salary money. But it was unlikely the amount finally voted would exceed the Senate figure.

4 Are Injured In Series Of City Accidents

Midland Youth Held After One Mishap Involving His Auto

Four persons were injured in two traffic accidents Friday afternoon, police reported, and a Midland youth was charged with drunken driving after a one-car crash early this morning.

Three were hurt after the brakes reportedly failed on a car operated by a Salineville woman which struck a parked car and hit a fence on Bradshaw Ave. about 4:15 p. m.

Louise Johnson, 78 W. Main St., Salineville, told police she was driving a car owned by M. & A. Motors, 1273 Pennsylvania Ave.

She said she was rounding a curve and started to apply the brakes but the foot pedal went all the way to the floor. There was no response when she pumped the brake, the woman added.

Mrs. Johnson said she attempted to maneuver the car toward the curb but struck a parked car owned by James N. Harris, 711

On Third Day Of Trip

Queen On Canadian Tour Shows Signs Of Weariness

CORNER BROOK, Nfld. (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II, working nearly 12 hours a day on her tour of Canada, is already showing signs of weariness.

The queen and Prince Philip are passing through the "wilderness leg" of their six weeks journey, inspecting logging and paper-making operations and flying deep into the heart of Labrador today to descend into an iron mine.

The royal couple began the third day of their trip—and for the Queen it's not easy going.

The Queen dedicated a huge international air terminal at Gander Friday, shook nearly a thousand hands at a reception and trudged for nearly a hour through the noisy heat of the great Bowater paper mill.

Elizabeth looked tired during the morning and there were lines around her wide blue eyes. She smiled seldom and spoke little to persons presented.

In the afternoon, however, she seemed more spirited and her famed smile began flashing again.

But, if it is hard work for the Queen, it is sheer delight for the people of Newfoundland.

The royal party drove through the beautiful northern forests past little settlements that were hardly more than clearings in the woods.

But each little cluster of homes and stores was gaily decked out with flags and pennants.

Loggers and their families waited for hours beside the dusty road to catch a glimpse of the royal car.

Phillips said more musical units are expected to enter the parade this year, along with the usual number of marching units and fire equipment.

During the discussion, Councilman A. Stanley Kidder said he explained the proposal to Tullis Tuesday, although he conceded the First Ward member may not have had time to investigate the plan fully since that time.

With the legislation first was presented, Tullis voted "no" on the questions of consideration and first reading. Before the final vote was taken, Council President B. E. Warner called for remarks from the floor.

"I don't want to vote on this because I'm not fully convinced," Tullis said. "I would like to see it held up until our next meeting."

"I feel this has been thoroughly discussed and explained," Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr. replied. "I know that I understand it. It's a question of time. We want to get the property while it is available. It won't be available if we wait too long. That's why we're having this extra meeting tonight."

Council had been told previously that the owner of the property, Maurice Rapport of Thompson Ave., previously had received an offer of $18,000 from a private purchaser. But after he was approached by the city, he agreed to give the municipality the first opportunity to buy and shaved the price to $17,000, provided the city acted promptly.

"I received this ordinance when I got home this afternoon at 5 o'clock," Tullis said in reply to Sample. "I have had since 5 to consider it."

"I'm very much in favor of this," Kidder said. "It's a question whether the man will hold this property. I took the privilege of explaining this proposal to Mr. Tullis Tuesday as thoroughly as I could. He knew about the property. Maybe he didn't have time to investigate because of his other activities. He's a busy man."

Then the ordinance was read and the 5-1 vote followed. Banging his gavel, the president announced the ordinance had been given first reading and would be up for second reading at the next regular meeting.

Although they did not join the discussion, Councilmen William Y. Orr, W. E. Kaiser and Samuel B. Webber sided with Sample and Kidder in affirmative votes.

The ordinance on which Council voted will allow the city to borrow $20,000 for the transaction — $17,000 for the property and $3,000 to cover the cost of razing the building, leveling the lot, blacktopping and installing meters.

The plan provides that revenue from the lot will retire the bonds which will be issued to raise the money.

A second piece of enabling legislation was not acted upon. It would authorize the administration to purchase the property, but the money must be available before the deal can be made.

Because the financing legislation was given only first reading, Council bypassed the ordinance authorizing the purchase.

The lot is expected to accommodate about 12 autos. The mayor declared yesterday the city must clear up its traffic and parking congestion by providing off-street facilities or face the possibility of the downtown business area being strangled by an immovable mass of autos.

The long - range plan calls for establishing similar off - street facilities at strategic locations throughout the business area, he said. The city expects to acquire more property in the future as sites become available for lease or purchase at reasonable rates and if they lend themselves to the long - range plan, the mayor explained.

Strauss

Many Senators felt that Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) furnished the vital momentum that brought rejection of Strauss' appointment.

Johnson had kept his position on Strauss a secret until the final hours of the months-long nomination battle. Then, Senate participants said, he went all out to line up the vote against him.

Some of Johnson's colleagues professed to see in this what amounted to an exchange of Strauss' political scalp for less Democratic opposition to Johnson's policy of trimming spending bills to avoid presidential vetoes.

Indiana Wreck Fatal

revised language, the Soviet proposal was just as unacceptable as the earlier one.

In their view, Khrushchev and Gromyko had not changed their insistence on forcing the Western powers out of Berlin and this was the crucial issue.

A final formal session of the conference was held this morning. The five-minute meeting confirmed the three-week recess agreed on earlier in a secret talk at Gromyko's villa.

A brief, final communique merely spoke of a "broad exchange of views" among the ministers and said they believe "further discussion and negotiations are necessary" when the conference resumes July 13.

Western officials now foresee a new period of mounting tension, especially since West Germany has decided to hold an assembly to elect its new president in West Berlin July 1.

The Communists have assailed the meeting as a provocative act in the city 110 miles inside East Germany.

In a speech to East Germany leaders in Moscow Friday Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev stood fast on the major Communist demands for Berlin and renewed his threat to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany, which the West does not recognize.

He offered to discuss "all the pros and cons" with the West and declared that the foreign ministers' failure made a meeting of government chiefs all the more necessary.

"I would be glad to go on, not only to one, but to several summit meetings," the Soviet Premier said, insisting that the West could never buy a continuation of its occupation rights in West Berlin simply by agreeing to meet him at the summit.

Soviet informants said they expect major East-West issues to be discussed in Washington early next month by Soviet Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov and U.S. officials.

One Soviet diplomat said Kozlov will take a message from Khrushchev to President Eisenhower when he leaves Moscow to open the Soviet exhibition in New York.

Man Kills Woman With Hammer, Injures Another

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Police said 30-year-old Floyd Hyde beat one woman to death with a hammer and injured the woman's mother seriously early today.

While being questioned in the attack, for which there was no immediate explanation, Hyde tried to jump out a third floor window at police headquarters here, detectives said.

The dead woman was identified as Mrs. Nina Reese, 32, former wife of Carl Reese, a disc jockey with Cleveland radio station (WERE).

In critical condition at Akron General Hospital with head injuries was Mrs. Anna Myrtle Allbritten, 62.

Tom Allbritten, Mrs. Reese's brother, said his sister had asked him to come to the house Friday night, telling him only that she was expecting trouble. Allbritten said he was in the house and heard a commotion in the kitchen.

He told police he went to the kitchen and saw Hyde chasing the women around the kitchen, swinging the hammer at them.

Allbritten said he chased Hyde outside and struggled with him but that Hyde escaped.

Hyde was picked up later by police.

At the station, police said, Hyde broke a window but was held back by metal bars. He was taken to St. Joseph Hospital for treatment.

A second piece of enabling legislation was not acted upon. It would authorize the administration to purchase the property, but the money must be available before the deal can be made.

Because the financing legislation was given only first reading, Council bypassed the ordinance authorizing the purchase.

The lot is expected to accommodate about 12 autos. The mayor declared yesterday the city must clear up its traffic and parking congestion by providing off-street facilities or face the possibility of the downtown business area being strangled by an immovable mass of autos.

The long - range plan calls for establishing similar off - street facilities at strategic locations throughout the business area, he said. The city expects to acquire more property in the future as sites become available for lease or purchase at reasonable rates and if they lend themselves to the long - range plan, the mayor explained.

Strauss

Many Senators felt that Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) furnished the vital momentum that brought rejection of Strauss' appointment.

Johnson had kept his position on Strauss a secret until the final hours of the months-long nomination battle. Then, Senate participants said, he went all out to line up the vote against him.

Some of Johnson's colleagues professed to see in this what amounted to an exchange of Strauss' political scalp for less Democratic opposition to Johnson's policy of trimming spending bills to avoid presidential vetoes.

During a dance Thursday evening, Dennis Fox was named king and Nancy Moore, queen. Harry Lutton was camp director. Mrs. Mary Jordon of Center Grange is in charge of food.

Patsy Searight and Mary Ann Buchanan of Hookstown are attending a Beaver County youth camp at the state park this weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Murphy of Center Grange are in charge.

Harry Shane, master, presided for a meeting of the Hookstown Grange Thursday evening and the program included readings, talks and games on dairy products.

A Father's Day skit was given. Gifts were presented to James Buchanan, oldest father, and Jack Staley, youngest. Lunch served by Mrs. Thomas Glenn and Mrs. Bernard Glenn included dairy products.

Indiana Wreck Fatal

AUBURN, Ind. (AP) — Wayne Badman, 12, of Edgerton, Ohio, was killed Friday when the dairy truck in which he was riding collided with a loaded auto carrier 1½ miles east of nearby Butler on U.S. 6. The dairy truck driver, Ted Jewell, 20, also of Edgerton, was hospitalized in Fort Wayne. State police said Jewell failed to stop when he drove onto the highway from a side road. His truck was hit broadside by the transport driven by James E. Watkins, 32, Newark, N. J., who was hospitalized in Hicksville, Ohio.

revised language, the Soviet proposal was just as unacceptable as the earlier one.

In their view, Khrushchev and Gromyko had not changed their insistence on forcing the Western powers out of Berlin and this was the crucial issue.

A final formal session of the conference was held this morning. The five-minute meeting confirmed the three-week recess agreed on earlier in a secret talk at Gromyko's villa.

A brief, final communique merely spoke of a "broad exchange of views" among the ministers and said they believe "further discussion and negotiations are necessary" when the conference resumes July 13.

Western officials now foresee a new period of mounting tension, especially since West Germany has decided to hold an assembly to elect its new president in West Berlin July 1.

The Communists have assailed the meeting as a provocative act in the city 110 miles inside East Germany.

In a speech to East Germany leaders in Moscow Friday Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev stood fast on the major Communist demands for Berlin and renewed his threat to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany, which the West does not recognize.

He offered to discuss "all the pros and cons" with the West and declared that the foreign ministers' failure made a meeting of government chiefs all the more necessary.

"I would be glad to go on, not only to one, but to several summit meetings," the Soviet Premier said, insisting that the West could never buy a continuation of its occupation rights in West Berlin simply by agreeing to meet him at the summit.

Soviet informants said they expect major East-West issues to be discussed in Washington early next month by Soviet Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov and U.S. officials.

One Soviet diplomat said Kozlov will take a message from Khrushchev to President Eisenhower when he leaves Moscow to open the Soviet exhibition in New York.

80 Await Camp Session Monday For Girl Scouts

Mrs. Catherine Bryan is camp director and Miss Ellen Monroe, executive director of scouting in the area, is assistant director. The area covers East Liverpool, Wellsville, Chester and Newell.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Communication Commission was notified Friday that W. N. Nungesser has acquired positive control of station WKOV, Wellston, Ohio.

Man Kills Woman With Hammer, Injures Another

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Police said 30-year-old Floyd Hyde beat one woman to death with a hammer and injured the woman's mother seriously early today.

While being questioned in the attack, for which there was no immediate explanation, Hyde tried to jump out a third floor window at police headquarters here, detectives said.

The dead woman was identified as Mrs. Nina Reese, 32, former wife of Carl Reese, a disc jockey with Cleveland radio station (WERE).

In critical condition at Akron General Hospital with head injuries was Mrs. Anna Myrtle Allbritten, 62.

Tom Allbritten, Mrs. Reese's brother, said his sister had asked him to come to the house Friday night, telling him only that she was expecting trouble. Allbritten said he was in the house and heard a commotion in the kitchen.

He told police he went to the kitchen and saw Hyde chasing the women around the kitchen, swinging the hammer at them.

Allbritten said he chased Hyde outside and struggled with him but that Hyde escaped.

Hyde was picked up later by police.

At the station, police said, Hyde broke a window but was held back by metal bars. He was taken to St. Joseph Hospital for treatment.

Throwing Rocks At The White House

When all the reasons for voting against Lewis L. Strauss as secretary of commerce had been carefully cultivated and brought into full bloom last Thursday, there were enough to make 49 Senate votes and thus retire an earnest public official to private life. The other side had only 46 votes.

Mr. Strauss can take this in his stride, despite his earnestness. He knows enough about politics to understand why he was rebuffed. He knows all the reasons that went into the vote that defeated him.

Being a man of firm opinions and somewhat less than ordinary tact, he had made personal enemies. One of these, Sen. Anderson of New Mexico, took it upon himself to carry his bitter feud with Strauss to a showdown in the Senate issue over his confirmation to be secretary of commerce. Anderson's vendetta picked up followers as it went along.

It picked up creeping socialists who have been trying to socialize the electric power industry in the United States and hated Strauss because he never has chosen to creep with them and in fact had challenged them to stand up and walk like individualists who believe in free enterprise.

It picked up legislators who found in the Strauss incident a chance to crack down on the authority of the White House relative to that of Congress — senators who wanted to throw a rock at the symbol of executive power.

It picked up down-the-line politicians whose point of view always is either black or white, depending on the partisan division—and all they needed to know was that Strauss is a Republican, a source of funds for Republican campaigns and therefore a prime target for Democratic sniping.

It picked up a shabby little band, too, of senators who never have let the truth of the Robert J. Oppenheimer matter seep through their impervious prejudice against attempts to protect the security of the United States against Communists. They wanted to cut up Strauss because it once had been his duty to put Oppenheimer out of touch with matters the brilliant physicist could not be trusted to keep secret, due to his admitted innocence of ideological mischief and plotting.

And somewhere along the line it was joined by all the senators who couldn't be specific about their reasons but wanted to take a crack at the nominee for an assortment of reasons — because they didn't like President Eisenhower, because they didn't like successful businessmen, because they didn't like administrative officials who talked back and perhaps because they didn't like the idea that Admiral Strauss was a Jew, though no senator would admit that in this day and age.

It all added up to 49 votes against his confirmation — enough to throw a highly competent man out of the Cabinet and to give the country a rough idea of how much contempt Congress can show for the people in exchange for the contempt the people sometimes show for Congress.

The Last To Know

This is the trouble in Louisiana:

The elected governor of the state can be adjudged insane by judges, declared insane by doctors, known to be insane by members of his family and by hundreds and even thousands of his fellow citizens, but he cannot be separated legally from the authority of his office until he has been impeached, removed from office and then declared insane.

While all that was going on, a mentally incompetent governor—or any other public official whose ability to carry on the duties of a public office was in question—could make an unholy botch of public affairs.

But on the other hand, if this disaster were to be averted by a laying on of restraining hands, as has been done with Gov. Long of Louisiana, the legality of every official act performed by the lieutenant governor and in fact the legality of everything done in the name of the state would be under a legal cloud.

Poor Louisiana, like its sister states and like the federal government itself has no legalized way to protect the delegated authority of the sovereign people of the United States against insanity or any other form of incompetence in public office. It is a serious problem in view of the tragic fact that insane people are the last to know they are ill and sometimes never comprehend the fact.

And it is not likely to be solved, either, because the only people who can solve it are the same ones reluctant to set up any automatic method of getting rid of an elected official, lest they be first to demonstrate how it works.

Double Victory

Post-meeting reports indicate that the White House Conference on Children and Youth which was held here this week served a two-fold purpose.

Primarily, it re-emphasized the vital role that the family must play in the everyday scheme of things. Secondarily, it presented East Liverpool in a favorable light to many who were visiting the city for the first time.

Much effort is put into such an endeavor by those directly responsible for its success or failure. Those who had any kind of a part in the program at Westgate School can look back on their work with a feeling of satisfaction.

The meeting was extremely successful and should fit in well with the nationwide program which will be climaxed by next year's conference in Washington.

The Once Over

A director of a world affairs committee says interviews show American youth has shocking views of American economy and that 55 per cent of the high school kids are for socialistic routines. They yawn at stories of a hard-working, thrifty America.

How could the director expect anything else? The kids have come up from the cradle in a dizzy age of less work, more money, time payments, government aid, two-car garages, super highways, unbalanced budgets, credit cards and goose-feather upholstery.

The man who started life on a shoestring strikes them as just a guy who goofed. The fellow who kept his nose to the grindstone was a dope. Horatio Alger? "Who's he?" If it's true he won success through a "bottom-of-ladder-up" routine he must have been auditioning for a vaudeville acrobatic act.

THE KIDS HAVE grown up in such a loose-spending, easy-money era they can be excused for questioning stories of more rugged going. If they think the Pilgram Fathers landed on a stern and rockbound coast in speedboats, that Washington's troops crossed the Delaware on a federal-financed suspension bridge and that Paul Revere made his famous ride on a superhighway in a 250 h.p. convertible, it's natural.

For all they can realize, the pioneers fought the Indians only during coffee breaks and got time-and-a-half for taking the covered wagons across swollen streams.

EARLY AMERICANS who hunted buffaloes for meat were doing it, he thinks, under a security program with a special pension fund for buffalo hunters who worked on holidays.

If you want to see a nice big yawn just start telling any kid under 20 that $50 a week was once big money for the heads of families, that hard times meant watering the soup and that only a couple of decades ago popper had to sell apples, pencils, etc., on the street, mow somebody's lawn for 50 cents, hock his watch, live in a shanty and sell the dog. The part where he did it bravely, mounted no barricades and kept his faith in the American way bores him most.

Nelson Rockefeller buttons are appearing. How about "Sock With Rock," "Keep Out of Hole with Rockefeller Roll" or "I Like Rocky and No Malarkey."

Ex-Gov. Thomas B. Dewey reportedly has been retained at $200,000 a year by Japan as adviser to help it expand exports. How much is that in yen? Dewey began life as a choir singer but he isn't being paid all that money to impersonate Nanki-Poo in "The Mikado" rendering "The Flowers that bloom in the spring tra la." One thing is sure: On $200,000 a year, Mr. Dewey can't be convincing with the number "A wandering minstrel I, a thing of SHREDS AND PATCHES."

THE NEW HAVEN RAILROAD has ended its Cape Cod run. It is sick of using train crews just to follow auto parades.

The youthful Aga Khan just graduated from Harvard and gave $50,000 scholarships for Near East students. This puts Harvard far ahead of Yale in the Middle East series.

Rocky Colavito, who got four homers in four successives times at bat for Cleveland, was born and raised in the shadow of Yankee Stadium. Yanks tried him out but didn't think he could hit.

Experts at American Medical Association Convention say antibiotics are useless in "Staphylococcal infections" and declare hospitals "must return to strict antiseptic routines formerly used and insist upon more cleanliness." Ya mean dirtiness is now permitted!

To show biz pretty well dulled up by old routines, same faces and same gags, a bunch of college kids have brought a refreshing note to New York via "The Billy Barnes Revue" in offbeat theater. They give answer not only to "What's new" but "Who's new?"

It's West Virginia!

Today is "West Virginia Day" and residents of the Mountaineer State are making the most of it.

Because of man-made boundaries, we in East Liverpool are on the books as Ohioans. But the relationship in the Northern Panhandle is so close that the designation "Ohioan" and "West Virginian" is virtually interchangeable.

We extend the hand of fellowship on the occasion and express the sincere hope that over the years the bonds of friendship become even firmer.

Picnic Daze

By nightfall, there will be sore feet and aching muscles.

There will be cranky children and equally cranky parents.

There will be the satisfied feeling of those who won this and that and the unhappy thoughts of those who didn't.

There will be the pleasant recollections that come with the renewal of old friendships. There also will be the fine feeling that comes from making new friends.

There will be fond memories of those who were absent—some forever.

There will be thoughts of the midway, of an enjoyable meal in a shady spot, of music, of goodbyes until next year.

All are part of any Potters Picnic. And tomorrow you can begin looking forward to the 1960 outing!

The Power Of Faith

By Howard Brodie

A tall candle symbolizing God is bedded in a plate of salt, the earth. Small candles are ignited from the central one, symbolizing flames of good in the hearts of members. Thus, meetings of the Women's Prayer Crusade for World Order and Peace, Interfaith begin.

A grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gibbs, of East Aurora, N. Y., was instrumental in starting the crusade, which has inspired thousands of women around the United States to do something personal for peace. She had heard her husband remark at a party, "It looks as if it's going to be up to the women to bring peace about." Today several thousand members believe that peace is God's plan and that each person may become an instrument of that peace through right ideas, attitudes and action.

In response to the crusade the mayor of Buffalo proclaimed a moment at high noon during World Day of Prayer last year for citizens to pray for peace. The crusade sponsored radio broadcasts by clergymen of all faiths. They distributed Lenten daily prayer calendars:

"1st day, Let us pray for ourselves — that peace may be within our walls . . . 4th, Let us pray for our neighborhoods . . . 31st, Let us pray for Universal peace, that religion may be renewed in the hearts of men . . ."

Too Much Power, Industry Warns

By Victor Riesel

During the icy summit sessions behind virtually sealed doors of New York's Hotel Roosevelt Presidential Suite, spokesmen for the steel industry have told steel labor leaders in cold, crisp, unmistakably precise words that the real issue in this battle is labor's growing power.

Victor Riesel

Bluntly they said that the crisis whirls around more than wage increases. The fight is over industry's right to say "no" to labor somewhere, sometime. The companies say this is the time not only for steel but for most of industry everywhere.

The steel industry position, as expressed across the table to the four spokesmen for the United Steelworkers of America, was — and is — that "there is no God-given or constitutional right which says that a steelworker must get a wage increase every year on the anniversary of his last increase."

-:-

IT CAN BE REPORTED on the highest authority that the industry people expressed the view that profits, prices and plant management are industry's business alone. The labor men were told to run their union and permit the businessmen to run their industry.

This frank call for a showdown came during a meeting of the eight men — four from each side —who have closeted themselves in secret sessions. But it can be reported that the industry spokesmen reflect the attitude of virtually all the other company executives whom they brief regularly in suites in the Hotel Biltmore across the street and in an East 42nd St. skyscraper headquarters.

The industry's challenge to one of the world's three or four most powerful unions was the answer to a question from Steel Union counsel Arthur Goldberg.

"What is your philosophy?" he asked the executives, headed by the always cool R. Conrad Cooper, executive vice president of U.S. Steel Corp. "From what philosophical concepts do you bargain with us?" Goldberg asked.

Reluctance on the industry side was as scarce as electric fans among the Eskimos.

-:-

IN EFFECT, this is what Cooper said, slowly but quite assuredly:

Look, we believe that labor has gone too far. We believe the United States is heading towards a laboristic society. We believe that wages for the moment are too high.

We believe it is our right for the good of the country to say "no."

We believe that labor has developed such power that industry's rights may be swept aside. It is no longer a matter of wages, hours or working conditions. We intend not to offer more than we have, in one form or another, because we believe it is our right not to do so if we think we have given enough and that more will hurt the industry and the country.

That was it. The talk turned to other matters — all futile. Whether this will lead to a strike the night of June 30, the nation will know within four or five days. We won't have to wait for the deadline.

The union, in some fashion, gives the companies notice it plans to strike at least five days in advance. It takes that much time to cool off the fires in the costly furnaces.

-:-

LAST MONDAY night, Steel Union leader Dave McDonald told some 25 senators during a two-hour briefing in the Senate's family dining room that some union officials already are talking to some corporations about banking the fires.

Some of the senators who heard McDonald left with the feeling that there would be a long strike — but not against all companies. McDonald insinuated, for example, that Inland Steel might settle.

The importance of a piecemeal strike which would keep metal pouring out of some mills is the fact that President Eisenhower could not use the Taft-Hartley Act immediately. He can't invoke the law's 80-day "cooling off" period unless there is an emergency need for steel. If some stuff rolls out, that emergency might never come.

So — pickets may be pounding the bricks around a crippled industry for months. Such a showdown could take the United States out of one era and into another—more bitter and more explosive.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

As far as I can make out at this distance, Geneva was a standoff. Neither side got what it wanted, which was a settlement that would make the other side look like a chump.

I cannot remember any year in the past when I was operating a central heating plant during the middle of June, though this sort of thing seems to belong with a now year-long spell of miserable weather.

In my opinion, the itty-bitty cars are nicer to look at than they are to ride in, just as the behemoths are nicer to ride in than they are to look at.

There are times when I wonder if we're all living here together in the same country, after hearing the two sides in a labor dispute cut up each other in a bid for favor.

It always flabbergasts me to pay nearly as much for resoles and heels as I used to pay for shoes, until I remember that I now am paying four times that much for shoes.

No one can deny, I think, that the most beautiful of all baby animals is the horse, because of its grace, its line and that preposterously fuzzy tail.

For the first time in a gardening lifetime I was completely skunked on everything I planted on Memorial Day, apparently because the ground was too wet. Nothing came up, except about 20 per cent of the baby lima beans, and this is going to be my horticultural swan song. Gardening in an uncertain climate is a job for professionals and amateur Pollyannas.

Tragic Episode

By David Lawrence

Personal Feud Swayed Senate On Strauss

One of the most tragic episodes in the entire history of the United States Senate was the fight which ended in refusing confirmation of Lewis L. Strauss as secretary of commerce.

David Lawrence

It was tragic because it was based on a personal feud. When hatreds become deep seated, they sometimes produce far-reaching cleavages, with emotion substituted for reason.

The dispute was the outgrowth of friction between Mr. Strauss and Sen. Clinton Anderson, (D-NM). When the former was chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, he rubbed Sen. Anderson the wrong way.

The New Mexico senator is chairman of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee in Congress. He is influential with his colleagues. Many sided with him—as members of the senatorial club often do—without particular regard to the merits of a question but with greater regard for the wishes of a fellow-senator.

MR. ANDERSON'S home state—New Mexico—is the seat of the atomic laboratories where many scientists are gathered. Some of them are embittered over what they believe was Mr. Strauss' animosity toward J. Robert Oppenheimer, the scientist whose "clearance" was denied for security reasons by a presidential board. While Mr. Strauss was not a member of this board he did present to the White House the charges that led to the inquiry. It was natural that many of Mr. Anderson's constituents should expect him to do what he could to punish Mr. Strauss.

This isn't all of the controversy. It couldn't be focused on the Communist issue alone. It so happens that Mr. Strauss fought against governmental operation of power projects and in favor of private power. So this gave an opportunity for some of his foes in that field to be lined up against him.

The tactics have been palpable for months. The hearing held by a Senate committee was more of an inquisition than the normal recording of the views of a prospective Cabinet officer. Usually the opposition party doesn't object to the appointment by a president of whomever he wants in a cabinet post.

The recent hearings resulted in a bitter fencing match and naturally the answers provoked were not always as clear cut as they would be if a different atmosphere had prevailed. Mr. Strauss was thereupon attacked as being "deceitful" and as lacking in character.

NOT ALL DEMOCRATS allowed this vendetta to envelop them. Sen. Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut, for instance, in a speech on Thursday to the Senate, said:

"Lewis L. Strauss is a man of 63 years. He is a former shoe salesman with a high school education who has received honorary degrees from 29 colleges and universities.

"He has a background of devoted service to philanthropic and religious affairs.

"He has earned distinction and wealth in the field of finance.

"He has a record of honorable achievement in the naval service in which he rose progressively to the rank of rear admiral.

"He has played some role in almost every administration, Democratic or Republican, since the days of Woodrow Wilson.

"He has earned letters of commendation from five presidents.

"He has been awarded five of his country's highest decorations.

"He has been honored by grateful nations of the free world.

"He has taken positions on matters of first importance to this nation, positions that were controversial, positions that were right.

"In the forty-second year of his public life, at its climactic hour, we in the Senate are asked to reward this man by visiting upon him a condemnation and a repudiation that have not been accorded any American in a generation."

Sen. Dodd referred to the case of Dr. Oppenheimer and said: "If ever a government official, in possession of critical secret information, indicted himself as a security risk by his own words and actions, it was Oppenheimer. . . .

"It is uncontested that over a period of many years Dr. Oppenheimer persisted in his Communist associations. He was a regular financial contributor to the Communist party."

SEN. DODD, referring to the Haakon Chevalier case, said it "is that Oppenheimer concealed this espionage attempt from security investigators, in an attempt to protect a Communist spy."

Indignant denials are being made that the friends of Oppenheimer have not influenced the waging of the fight against the confirmation of Mr. Strauss. But the fact remains that for some unexplained reason the present secretary of commerce has been the victim of the same kind of smears and innuendoes which only a few years ago were being denounced as "character assassination" in the era of so-called McCarthyism. Today many of the "liberal," senators are lined up against Lewis Strauss.

The most charitable interpretation of all this is that it is a personal feud and that where human forgiveness should long ago have settled the quarrel between two strongly dedicated men, it lingered on until the Senate itself became the vehicle for personal spite and recrimination. It is a sad chapter in American history.

New England Logic

By Raymond Moley

The small state of New Hampshire has been known from colonial days for its product of a very special variety of common sense. From time to time its lawyers and jurists have pierced the web of legal quibbling and led the way into the free air of reality.

Nearly 90 years ago, the Supreme Court of that state in two famous decisions broke through a century or more of confusion about what constitutes insanity as a defense in criminal actions, with a workable solution which is still cited by authorities in that field.

In the much discussed and criticized case of Yates et al. vs. United States, decided two years ago, a quibble appeared iin Mr. Justice Harlan's majority opinion about what would constitute a crime under the Smith Act's provision making it unlawful for any person to "knowingly or willingly advocate, abet, advise or teach the duty, necessity, desirability or propriety of overthrowing or destroying any government in the United States by force or violence."

THE HARLAN OPINION held in substance that this provision of the Smith Act does not prohibit advocacy and teaching of forci le overthrow of the government as an abstract principle, divorced from any effort to instigate action to that end.

The case involved 14 members of the Communist party in California and in many respects was on a level with the famous Dennis case, which was tried before Judge Medina over many tumultuous months. The convictions therein were upheld by the Supreme Court.

It would seem that the issue comes down to the immediacy of the incitement to action. Such teaching or advocacy would be lawful if it did not incite to action immediately.

To correct this construction of the Smith Act, Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss) has introduced a bill which would make such advocacy unlawful without regard to time. This bill, among others, was created by a committee of the American Bar Association after many months of labor.

In a statement supporting the bill, Attorney General Louis C. Wyman of New Hampshire cut through the cobwebs of the Yates opinion to the essence of what was intended by the Smith Act.

Wyman is no stranger to the problem involved. He is chairman of the Committee on Internal Security of the National Association of Attorneys General and a member of the ABA's Special Committee on Communist Tactics, Strategy and Objectives.

He argued the case of Sweezy vs. New Hampshire and also the Nelson case before the Supreme Court, in both of which the Supreme Court assumed broad legislative functions.

Wyman said in his statement: "This play of words (the Harlan opinion) eviscerated the plain congressional intention of the Smith Act. . . By the formula pronounced in Yates et al. vs. United States, it now seems necessary for the government to wait until a putsch is very close to reality before it may prosecute. . . . Sedition and subversion is neither candy-making nor lobbying. . . .

"Those who argue that speech is not action in this field, confuse the forest and the trees. Subversion of free government is always preceded by much speech which, when extended to intentional advocacy of edition, must lose its privileged character to see judicial invitation to termites in our constitutional foundation."

In its practical application, the law as interpreted by the Supreme Court in the Yates case would stop all efforts by government to protect our institutions against Communism.

Communistic action is developed over a long period of indoctrination. To provide internal security, it is essential that the teaching be suppressed in its incipient stages.

Throwing Rocks At The White House

When all the reasons for voting against Lewis L. Strauss as secretary of commerce had been carefully cultivated and brought into full bloom last Thursday, there were enough to make 49 Senate votes and thus retire an earnest public official to private life. The other side had only 46 votes.

Mr. Strauss can take this in his stride, despite his earnestness. He knows enough about politics to understand why he was rebuffed. He knows all the reasons that went into the vote that defeated him.

Being a man of firm opinions and somewhat less than ordinary tact, he had made personal enemies. One of these, Sen. Anderson of New Mexico, took it upon himself to carry his bitter feud with Strauss to a showdown in the Senate issue over his confirmation to be secretary of commerce. Anderson's vendetta picked up followers as it went along.

It picked up creeping socialists who have been trying to socialize the electric power industry in the United States and hated Strauss because he never has chosen to creep with them and in fact had challenged them to stand up and walk like individualists who believe in free enterprise.

It picked up legislators who found in the Strauss incident a chance to crack down on the authority of the White House relative to that of Congress — senators who wanted to throw a rock at the symbol of executive power.

It picked up down-the-line politicians whose point of view always is either black or white, depending on the partisan division—and all they needed to know was that Strauss is a Republican, a source of funds for Republican campaigns and therefore a prime target for Democratic sniping.

It picked up a shabby little band, too, of senators who never have let the truth of the Robert J. Oppenheimer matter seep through their impervious prejudice against attempts to protect the security of the United States against Communists. They wanted to cut up Strauss because it once had been his duty to put Oppenheimer out of touch with matters the brilliant physicist could not be trusted to keep secret, due to his admitted innocence of ideological mischief and plotting.

And somewhere along the line it was joined by all the senators who couldn't be specific about their reasons but wanted to take a crack at the nominee for an assortment of reasons — because they didn't like President Eisenhower, because they didn't like successful businessmen, because they didn't like administrative officials who talked back and perhaps because they didn't like the idea that Admiral Strauss was a Jew, though no senator would admit that in this day and age.

It all added up to 49 votes against his confirmation — enough to throw a highly competent man out of the Cabinet and to give the country a rough idea of how much contempt Congress can show for the people in exchange for the contempt the people sometimes show for Congress.

The Last To Know

This is the trouble in Louisiana:

The elected governor of the state can be adjudged insane by judges, declared insane by doctors, known to be insane by members of his family and by hundreds and even thousands of his fellow citizens, but he cannot be separated legally from the authority of his office until he has been impeached, removed from office and then declared insane.

While all that was going on, a mentally incompetent governor—or any other public official whose ability to carry on the duties of a public office was in question—could make an unholy botch of public affairs.

But on the other hand, if this disaster were to be averted by a laying on of restraining hands, as has been done with Gov. Long of Louisiana, the legality of every official act performed by the lieutenant governor and in fact the legality of everything done in the name of the state would be under a legal cloud.

Poor Louisiana, like its sister states and like the federal government itself has no legalized way to protect the delegated authority of the sovereign people of the United States against insanity or any other form of incompetence in public office. It is a serious problem in view of the tragic fact that insane people are the last to know they are ill and sometimes never comprehend the fact.

And it is not likely to be solved, either, because the only people who can solve it are the same ones reluctant to set up any automatic method of getting rid of an elected official, lest they be first to demonstrate how it works.

Double Victory

Post-meeting reports indicate that the White House Conference on Children and Youth which was held here this week served a two-fold purpose.

Primarily, it re-emphasized the vital role that the family must play in the everyday scheme of things. Secondarily, it presented East Liverpool in a favorable light to many who were visiting the city for the first time.

Much effort is put into such an endeavor by those directly responsible for its success or failure. Those who had any kind of a part in the program at Westgate School can look back on their work with a feeling of satisfaction.

The meeting was extremely successful and should fit in well with the nationwide program which will be climaxed by next year's conference in Washington.

It's West Virginia!

Today is "West Virginia Day" and residents of the Mountaineer State are making the most of it.

Because of man-made boundaries, we in East Liverpool are on the books as Ohioans. But the relationship in the Northern Panhandle is so close that the designation "Ohioan" and "West Virginian" is virtually interchangeable.

We extend the hand of fellowship on the occasion and express the sincere hope that over the years the bonds of friendship become even firmer.

Picnic Daze

By nightfall, there will be sore feet and aching muscles.

There will be cranky children and equally cranky parents.

There will be the satisfied feeling of those who won this and that and the unhappy thoughts of those who didn't.

There will be the pleasant recollections that come with the renewal of old friendships. There also will be the fine feeling that comes from making new friends.

There will be fond memories of those who were absent—some forever.

There will be thoughts of the midway, of an enjoyable meal in a shady spot, of music, of goodbyes until next year.

All are part of any Potters Picnic. And tomorrow you can begin looking forward to the 1969 outing!

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

A director of a world affairs committee says interviews show American youth has shocking views of American economy and that 55 per cent of the high school kids are for socialistic routines. They yawn at stories of a hard-working, thrifty America.

How could the director expect anything else? The kids have come up from the cradle in a dizzy age of less work, more money, time payments, government aid, two-car garages, super highways, unbalanced budgets, credit cards and goose-feather upholstery.

The man who started life on a shoestring strikes them as just a guy who goofed. The fellow who kept his nose to the grindstone was a dope. Horatio Alger? "Who's he?" If it's true he won success through a "bottom-of-ladder-up" routine he must have been auditioning for a vaudeville acrobatic act.

THE KIDS HAVE grown up in such a loose-spending, easy-money era they can be excused for questioning stories of more rugged going. If they think the Pilgram Fathers landed on a stern and rockbound coast in speedboats, that Washington's troops crossed the Delaware on a federal-financed suspension bridge and that Paul Revere made his famous ride on a superhighway in a 250 h.p. convertible, it's natural.

For all they can realize, the pioneers fought the Indians only during coffee breaks and got time-and-a-half for taking the covered wagons across swollen streams.

EARLY AMERICANS who hunted buffaloes for meat were doing it, he thinks, under a security program with a special pension fund for buffalo hunters who worked on holidays.

If you want to see a nice big yawn just start telling any kid under 20 that $50 a week was once big money for the heads of families, that hard times meant watering the soup and that only a couple of decades ago popper had to sell apples, pencils, etc., on the street, mow somebody's lawn for 50 cents, hock his watch, live in a shanty and sell the dog. The part where he did it bravely, mounted no barricades and kept his faith in the American way bores him most.

Nelson Rockefeller buttons are appearing. How about "Sock With Rock," "Keep Out of Hole with Rockefeller Roll" or "I Like Rocky and No Malarkey."

Ex-Gov. Thomas B. Dewey reportedly has been retained at $200,000 a year by Japan as adviser to help it expand exports. How much is that in yen? Dewey began life as a choir singer but he isn't being paid all that money to impersonate Nanki-Poo in "The Mikado" rendering "The Flowers that bloom in the spring tra la." One thing is sure: On $200,000 a year, Mr. Dewey can't be convincing with the number "A wandering minstrel I, a thing of SHREDS AND PATCHES."

THE NEW HAVEN RAILROAD has ended its Cape Cod run. It is sick of using train crews just to follow auto parades.

The youthful Aga Khan just graduated from Harvard and gave $50,000 scholarships for Near East students. This puts Harvard far ahead of Yale in the Middle East series.

Rocky Colavito, who got four homers in four successives times at bat for Cleveland, was born and raised in the shadow of Yankee Stadium. Yanks tried him out but didn't think he could hit.

Experts at American Medical Association Convention say antibiotics are useless in "Staphylococcal infections" and declare hospitals "must return to strict antiseptic routines formerly used and insist upon more cleanliness." Ya mean dirtiness is now permitted!

To show biz pretty well dulled up by old routines, same faces and same gags, a bunch of college kids have brought a refreshing note to New York via "The Billy Barnes Revue" in offbeat theater. They give answer not only to "What's new" but "Who's new?"

The Power Of Faith

By Howard Brodie

A tall candle symbolizing God is bedded in a plate of salt, the earth. Small candles are ignited from the central one, symbolizing flames of good in the hearts of members. Thus, meetings of the Women's Prayer Crusade for World Order and Peace, Interfaith begin.

A grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gibbs, of East Aurora, N. Y., was instrumental in starting the crusade, which has inspired thousands of women around the United States to do something personal for peace. She had heard her husband remark at a party, "It looks as if it's going to be up to the women to bring peace about." Today several thousand members believe that peace is God's plan and that each person may become an instrument of that peace through right ideas, attitudes and action.

In response to the crusade the mayor of Buffalo proclaimed a moment at high noon during World Day of Prayer last year for citizens to pray for peace. The crusade sponsored radio broadcasts by clergymen of all faiths. They distributed Lenten daily prayer calendars:

"1st day, Let us pray for ourselves — that peace may be within our walls . . . 4th, Let us pray for our neighborhoods . . . 31st, Let us pray for Universal peace, that religion may be renewed in the hearts of men . . ."

Too Much Power, Industry Warns

By Victor Riesel

During the icy summit sessions behind virtually sealed doors of New York's Hotel Roosevelt Presidential Suite, spokesmen for the steel industry have told steel labor leaders in cold, crisp, unmistakably precise words that the real issue in this battle is labor's growing power.

Victor Riesel

Bluntly they said that the crisis whirls around more than wage increases. The fight is over industry's right to say "no" to labor somewhere, sometime. The companies say this is the time not only for steel but for most of industry everywhere.

The steel industry position, as expressed across the table to the four spokesmen for the United Steelworkers of America, was — and is — that "there is no God-given or constitutional right which says that a steelworker must get a wage increase every year on the anniversary of his last increase."

-:-

IT CAN BE REPORTED on the highest authority that the industry people expressed the view that profits, prices and plant management are industry's business alone. The labor men were told to run their union and permit the businessmen to run their industry.

This frank call for a showdown came during a meeting of the eight men — four from each side —who have closeted themselves in secret sessions. But it can be reported that the industry spokesmen reflect the attitude of virtually all the other company executives whom they brief regularly in suites in the Hotel Biltmore across the street and in an East 42nd St. skyscraper headquarters.

The industry's challenge to one of the world's three or four most powerful unions was the answer to a question from Steel Union counsel Arthur Goldberg.

"What is your philosophy?" he asked the executives, headed by the always cool R. Conrad Cooper, executive vice president of U.S. Steel Corp. "From what philosophical concepts do you bargain with us?" Goldberg asked.

Reluctance on the industry side was as scarce as electric fans among the Eskimos.

-:-

IN EFFECT, this is what Cooper said, slowly but quite assuredly:

Look, we believe that labor has gone too far. We believe the United States is heading towards a laboristic society. We believe that wages for the moment are too high.

We believe it is our right for the good of the country to say "no."

We believe that labor has developed such power that industry's rights may be swept aside. It is no longer a matter of wages, hours or working conditions. We intend not to offer more than we have, in one form or another, because we believe it is our right not to do so if we think we have given enough and that more will hurt the industry and the country.

That was it. The talk turned to other matters — all futile. Whether this will lead to a strike the night of June 30, the nation will know within four or five days. We won't have to wait for the deadline.

The union, in some fashion, gives the companies notice it plans to strike at least five days in advance. It takes that much time to cool off the fires in the costly furnaces.

-:-

LAST MONDAY night, Steel Union leader Dave McDonald told some 25 senators during a two-hour briefing in the Senate's family dining room that some union officials already are talking to some corporations about banking the fires.

Some of the senators who heard McDonald left with the feeling that there would be a long strike — but not against all companies. McDonald insinuated, for example, that Inland Steel might settle.

The importance of a piecemeal strike which would keep metal pouring out of some mills is the fact that President Eisenhower could not use the Taft-Hartley Act immediately. He can't invoke the law's 80-day "cooling off" period unless there is an emergency need for steel. If some stuff rolls out, that emergency might never come.

So — pickets may be pounding the bricks around a crippled industry for months. Such a showdown could take the United States out of one era and into another—more bitter and more explosive.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

As far as I can make out at this distance, Geneva was a standoff. Neither side got what it wanted, which was a settlement that would make the other side look like a chump.

I cannot remember any year in the past when I was operating a central heating plant during the middle of June, though this sort of thing seems to belong with a now year-long spell of miserable weather.

In my opinion, the itty-bitty cars are nicer to look at than they are to ride in, just as the behemoths are nicer to ride in than they are to look at.

There are times when I wonder if we're all living here together in the same country, after hearing the two sides in a labor dispute cut up each other in a bid for favor.

It always flabbergasts me to pay nearly as much for resoles and heels as I used to pay for shoes, until I remember that I now am paying four times that much for shoes.

No one can deny, I think, that the most beautiful of all baby animals is the horse, because of its grace, its line and that preposterously fuzzy tail.

For the first time in a gardening lifetime I was completely skunked on everything I planted on Memorial Day, apparently because the ground was too wet. Nothing came up, except about 20 per cent of the baby lima beans, and this is going to be my horticultural swan song. Gardening in an uncertain climate is a job for professionals and amateur Pollyannas.

Tragic Episode

By David Lawrence

Personal Feud Swayed Senate On Strauss

One of the most tragic episodes in the entire history of the United States Senate was the fight which ended in refusing confirmation of Lewis L. Strauss as secretary of commerce.

David Lawrence

It was tragic because it was based on a personal feud. When hatreds become deep seated, they sometimes produce far-reaching cleavages, with emotion substituted for reason.

The dispute was the outgrowth of friction between Mr. Strauss and Sen. Clinton Anderson, (D-NM). When the former was chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, he rubbed Sen. Anderson the wrong way.

The New Mexico senator is chairman of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee in Congress. He is influential with his colleagues. Many sided with him—as members of the senatorial club often do—without particular regard to the merits of a question but with greater regard for the wishes of a fellow-senator.

MR. ANDERSON'S home state—New Mexico—is the seat of the atomic laboratories where many scientists are gathered. Some of them are embittered over what they believe was Mr. Strauss' animosity toward J. Robert Oppenheimer, the scientist whose "clearance" was denied for security reasons by a presidential board. While Mr. Strauss was not a member of this board he did present to the White House the charges that led to the inquiry. It was natural that many of Mr. Anderson's constituents should expect him to do what he could to punish Mr. Strauss.

This isn't all of the controversy. It couldn't be focused on the Communist issue alone. It so happens that Mr. Strauss fought against governmental operation of power projects and in favor of private power. So this gave an opportunity for some of his foes in that field to be lined up against him.

The tactics have been palpable for months. The hearing held by a Senate committee was more of an inquisition than the normal recording of the views of a prospective Cabinet officer. Usually the opposition party doesn't object to the appointment by a president of whomever he wants in a cabinet post.

The recent hearings resulted in a bitter fencing match and naturally the answers provoked were not always as clear cut as they would be if a different atmosphere had prevailed. Mr. Strauss was thereupon attacked as being "deceitful" and as lacking in character.

NOT ALL DEMOCRATS allowed this vendetta to envelop them. Sen. Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut, for instance, in a speech on Thursday to the Senate, said:

"Lewis L. Strauss is a man of 63 years. He is a former shoe salesman with a high school education who has received honorary degrees from 29 colleges and universities.

"He has a background of devoted service to philanthropic and religious affairs.

"He has earned distinction and wealth in the field of finance.

"He has a record of honorable achievement in the naval service in which he rose progressively to the rank of rear admiral.

"He has played some role in almost every administration, Democratic or Republican, since the days of Woodrow Wilson.

"He has earned letters of commendation from five presidents.

"He has been awarded five of his country's highest decorations.

"He has been honored by grateful nations of the free world.

"He has taken positions on matters of first importance to this nation, positions that were controversial, positions that were right.

"In the forty-second year of his public life, at its climactic hour, we in the Senate are asked to reward this man by visiting upon him a condemnation and a repudiation that have not been accorded any American in a generation."

Sen. Dodd referred to the case of Dr. Oppenheimer and said: "If ever a government official, in possession of critical secret information, indicted himself as a security risk by his own words and actions, it was Oppenheimer. . . .

"It is uncontested that over a period of many years Dr. Oppenheimer persisted in his Communist associations. He was a regular financial contributor to the Communist party."

SEN. DODD, referring to the Haakon Chevalier case, said it "is that Oppenheimer concealed this espionage attempt from security investigators, in an attempt to protect a Communist spy."

Indignant denials are being made that the friends of Oppenheimer have not influenced the waging of the fight against the confirmation of Mr. Strauss. But the fact remains that for some unexplained reason the present secretary of commerce has been the victim of the same kind of smears and innuendoes which only a few years ago were being denounced as "character assassination" in the era of so-called McCarthyism. Today many of the "liberal," senators are lined up against Lewis Strauss.

The most charitable interpretation of all this is that it is a personal feud and that where human forgiveness should long ago have settled the quarrel between two strongly dedicated men, it lingered on until the Senate itself became the vehicle for personal spite and recrimination. It is a sad chapter in American history.

Confident Living

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

How To Renew Your Mind

Not long ago I read a magazine article about Tommy Bolt, U. S. Open golf champion. I'm not much of a golfer myself, but I like to read about the game and play at it a bit. And, when I saw the subtitle of this particular article — "It was clean, positive thinking that changed my life,"—I was, naturally enough, intrigued and began to read.

Dr. Peale

It seems that Mr. Bolt used to be called "the terrible-tempered Mr. Bolt." He would get angry all the time. Because of his terrible temper, he missed winning championships on a number of earlier occasions.

—:—

ONE TIME, in a towering rage, it is said that he deliberately broke all his clubs just because he had missed a putt. Any time he made a poor shot, he gave similar displays of temper. To use his own phrase, he would just "wrap the 5 iron around a tree."

Gradually, the gallery began to notice this and tried to heckle him into a rage. Spectators following Mr. Bolt around the course would gather at the green as he was about to putt and chant, "Miss it, miss it!" And he would accommodate them by missing and putting on a display of temper.

Tommy was failing only because he couldn't control his mental attitudes. He had plenty of ability, that's sure. Then, it seems, he came across a couple of books which helped straighten him out. One of them, the article said, was a book by Bishop Fulton J. Sheen. The other, as I was pleasantly surprised to learn, was one of my books.

And this is what Mr. Bolt wrote in the Saturday Evening Post about his experience: "I reformed my thinking; I reconditioned my attitudes; I strengthened my faith and put my trust in Someone bigger than I—and it worked. My new positive attitude never wavered once I started.

"Clean, positive thinking changed my life. I wanted to keep my thinking clear and straight. The things I read put a safety valve on my temper and formed a sort of protective coating against outside influences and distractions."

THE LAST sentence is really a classic of positive thinking, but it is followed by one that is even better: "I promised the Lord I would help Him help me."

To change your thought pattern, to learn to control your temper, to keep your eye and mind on the ball, to renew your mind, you need God's help. But He also needs yours. Even God cannot do anything for you unless you help. It has to be a cooperative job. As soon as you and I are really willing and ready to let God change us, then He changes us.

It might be a good idea for each of us, today, right now, to promise the Lord that we will help Him help us. With the passing of years, our thought patterns tend to become habitual. Our minds get stuck in the same old grove.

But you can tell the Lord that you want to change your life and renew your mind by reconditioning your mental attitudes. When you say that you will help Him help you—you can be certain that He will.

As usual the Bible shows us the way: "Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind..."

HUMANITY CALLING

By Major William Murtaugh
The Salvation Army

KNOW YOUR SALVATION ARMY

The recession through which we have been passing, has imposed stringent demands upon The Salvation Army.

We are prone to make a single contribution to a charitable organization annually and wonder why it is necessary for that organization to devise other ways and means to carry on their services.

First, let is be understood that The Salvation Army has never been totally supported by any Annual Campaign. It has always been necessary to employ auxiliary methods to supplement its over-all budget. The Annual Campaign was primarily instituted to support basic maintenance operations, and the extent of spiritual and humanitarian endeavors have always been dependent upon various other additional means of support.

Regardless of what some people contribute to the Community Fund, or direct to The Salvation Army, they often take exception when they report an emergency case to us, and are informed that we are not in a position financially to handle the entire emergency.

At present, The Salvation Army in East Liverpool is not solvent, but is constantly doing its utmost to serve the people of the community in the best possible manner.

The Annual Report for 1958 reveals that The Salvation Army assisted 314 local families with emergency welfare, and provided 1,274 meals and 217 lodgings for transients. The total value of assistance given was $19,166.52.

Whenever you desire to know the facts of an organization serving the community, it is always a good policy to contact them direct. We welcome your investigation, and would be pleased to forward a copy of our Annual Report to you upon request.

Confident Living

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

How To Renew Your Mind

Not long ago I read a magazine article about Tommy Bolt, U. S. Open golf champion. I'm not much of a golfer myself, but I like to read about the game and play at it a bit. And, when I saw the subtitle of this particular article — "It was clean, positive thinking that changed my life,"—I was, naturally enough, intrigued and began to read.

Dr. Peale

It seems that Mr. Bolt used to be called "the terrible-tempered Mr. Bolt." He would get angry all the time. Because of his terrible temper, he missed winning championships on a number of earlier occasions.

—:—

ONE TIME, in a towering rage, it is said that he deliberately broke all his clubs just because he had missed a putt. Any time he made a poor shot, he gave similar displays of temper. To use his own phrase, he would just "wrap the 5 iron around a tree."

Gradually, the gallery began to notice this and tried to heckle him into a rage. Spectators following Mr. Bolt around the course would gather at the green as he was about to putt and chant, "Miss it, miss it!" And he would accommodate them by missing and putting on a display of temper.

Tommy was failing only because he couldn't control his mental attitudes. He had plenty of ability, that's sure. Then, it seems, he came across a couple of books which helped straighten him out. One of them, the article said, was a book by Bishop Fulton J. Sheen. The other, as I was pleasantly surprised to learn, was one of my books.

And this is what Mr. Bolt wrote in the Saturday Evening Post about his experience: "I reformed my thinking; I reconditioned my attitudes; I strengthened my faith and put my trust in Someone bigger than I—and it worked. My new positive attitude never wavered once I started.

"Clean, positive thinking changed my life. I wanted to keep my thinking clear and straight. The things I read put a safety valve on my temper and formed a sort of protective coating against outside influences and distractions."

THE LAST sentence is really a classic of positive thinking, but it is followed by one that is even better: "I promised the Lord I would help Him help me."

To change your thought pattern, to learn to control your temper, to keep your eye and mind on the ball, to renew your mind, you need God's help. But He also needs yours. Even God cannot do anything for you unless you help. It has to be a cooperative job. As soon as you and I are really willing and ready to let God change us, then He changes us.

It might be a good idea for each of us, today, right now, to promise the Lord that we will help Him help us. With the passing of years, our thought patterns tend to become habitual. Our minds get stuck in the same old grove.

But you can tell the Lord that you want to change your life and renew your mind by reconditioning your mental attitudes. When you say that you will help Him help you—you can be certain that He will.

As usual the Bible shows us the way: "Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind..."

HUMANITY CALLING

By Major William Murtaugh
The Salvation Army

KNOW YOUR SALVATION ARMY

The recession through which we have been passing, has imposed stringent demands upon The Salvation Army.

We are prone to make a single contribution to a charitable organization annually and wonder why it is necessary for that organization to devise other ways and means to carry on their services.

First, let is be understood that The Salvation Army has never been totally supported by any Annual Campaign. It has always been necessary to employ auxiliary methods to supplement its over-all budget. The Annual Campaign was primarily instituted to support basic maintenance operations, and the extent of spiritual and humanitarian endeavors have always been dependent upon various other additional means of support.

Regardless of what some people contribute to the Community Fund, or direct to The Salvation Army, they often take exception when they report an emergency case to us, and are informed that we are not in a position financially to handle the entire emergency.

At present, The Salvation Army in East Liverpool is not solvent, but is constantly doing its utmost to serve the people of the community in the best possible manner.

The Annual Report for 1953 reveals that The Salvation Army assisted 314 local families with emergency welfare, and provided 1,274 meals and 217 lodgings for transients. The total value of assistance given was $19,166.52.

Whenever you desire to know the facts of an organization serving the community, it is always a good policy to contact them direct. We welcome your investigation, and would be pleased to forward a copy of our Annual Report to you upon request.

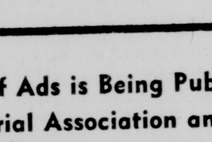
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

| Day | Book | Chapter | Verses |
|---|---|---|---|
| Sunday | 2 Chronicles | 20 | 20-37 |
| Monday | Revelation | 22 | 6-21 |
| Tuesday | Leviticus | 14 | 1-20 |
| Wednesday | Leviticus | 19 | 1-18 |
| Thursday | Numbers | 20 | 1-13 |
| Friday | 2 Kings | 11 | 1-16 |
| Saturday | 2 Kings | 11 | 17 |
| | | 12 | 8 |



When I walk out of my front door, it always gives me a good feeling to see the spire of the church down the street.

A church spire makes you look upward. You have an irresistible urge to gaze at its highest point. It is a lofty symbol, the physical manifestation of an ideal.

Sometimes, when I step through my front door, my thoughts are on the "down" side. Then I look toward the church, my eyes travel to the sky, and I feel better, no matter what my troubles.

Next time you're near a church — try it and see. Better still, try going inside.

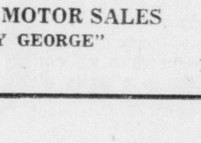
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

| Day | Book | Chapter | Verses |
|---|---|---|---|
| Sunday | 2 Chronicles | 20 | 20-37 |
| Monday | Revelation | 22 | 6-21 |
| Tuesday | Leviticus | 14 | 1-20 |
| Wednesday | Leviticus | 19 | 1-18 |
| Thursday | Numbers | 20 | 1-13 |
| Friday | 2 Kings | 11 | 1-16 |
| Saturday | 2 Kings | 11 | 17 |
| | | 12 | 8 |



When I walk out of my front door, it always gives me a good feeling to see the spire of the church down the street.

A church spire makes you look upward. You have an irresistible urge to gaze at its highest point. It is a lofty symbol, the physical manifestation of an ideal.

Sometimes, when I step through my front door, my thoughts are on the "down" side. Then I look toward the church, my eyes travel to the sky, and I feel better, no matter what my troubles.

Next time you're near a church — try it and see. Better still, try going inside.

Yanks Shade Indians, 3-2, Close Within 2½ Games Of Top

INDIAN BITES DUST. Minnie Minoso bites the dust as he slides home in the sixth inning of Friday night's game between the Indians and Yanks at Yankee Stadium. Yanks' catcher Yogi Berra covers the plate as Minoso attempts to steal to break a 2-2 tie. Umpire Berry ruled Minnie was a dead Indian. Yanks won, 3-2. (UPI Telephoto)

Orioles Sweep 2; Tigers Edge Nats

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Yankees are back in business with the help of newcomer Jim Coates.

Hank Bauer and Yogi Berra had the clutch hits Friday night as the Yankees, still fifth, closed within 2½ games of the top with a 3-2 victory over Cleveland's American League leading Indians.

But it was Coates who put it away. The big rookie, 26, nailed the opener of a four-game series with one-hit pitching for 3 1-3 shutout innings in relief of injured Whitey Ford.

Coates came on after Ford, who blanked the Indians on four hits for four innings, gave way because of a sprained ankle in a tying, two-run sixth.

That rally ended with Minnie Minoso's thwarted theft of home and the Indians lost their second in a row after winning seven straight. They now have only a one-game lead over the Chicago White Sox and Baltimore Orioles, who are in a virtual tie for second.

The White Sox, idled by rain at Boston, have a .001 percentage point edge over the Orioles, who swept a twi-night pair from Kansas City 8-2 and 2-0.

Detroit retained fourth place by beating Washington 6-4 in 11 innings.

In the National League, San Francisco took first place from Milwaukee by a half-game, beating the Braves 4-3 with two runs in the 10th. Pittsburgh whipped St. Louis 6-0. Los Angeles defeated Cincinnati 6-2 and Philadelphia beat the Chicago Cubs 8-7.

The Yankees, only .042 points behind Cleveland, scored the clincher with an unearned run on Bauer's two-out single in the sixth.

Berra collected his 1,200th RBI with a two-out single for the first of two runs in the fifth. Loser Gary Bell (6-6), after blanking the Yankees on one hit for four frames, then wild pitched the other run home. Ford was injured sliding as he was forced at second in that inning.

The Orioles put away the sweep on a joint shutout by Skinny Brown and Billy Loes backed by Gus Triandos' 17th homer—the 100th of his career — and Bob Boyd's RBI single. Brown (4-2), gave up five of the A's seven hits in the last two innings. Loes saved it by retiring pinch hitter Ray Boone on a fly with the bases-loaded in the ninth.

Gene Woodling and Billy Gardner each homered and drove in three runs for Baltimore in the opener. Billy O'Dell (3-6) won it, allowing only four hits. Johnny Kucks (1-4) and Rip Coleman (2-5) were the losers for the A's, who have dropped seven straight.

The Tigers came from three runs back, tying it 4-all in the ninth on singles by Ted Lepcio and Frank Bolling and a force play. They broke it up with a pair in the 13th on an error, singles by Cott Veal and Eddie Yost and Larry Osborne's sacrifice fly. Barney Schultz won it in relief.

The Nats, blanked over the last eight innings by starter Paul Foytack and Schultz, scored three in the first on Faye Throneberry's solo homer and Harmon Killebrew's two-run homer. It was Killebrew's 24th, tops in the majors and even with Babe Ruth's record-60 pace of 1927.

KANSAS CITY catcher Harry Chiti tries in vain to put the tag in Al Pilarcik who scored on catcher Joe Ginsberg's long fly to Bill Tuttle in centerfield. Tuttle's throw to Chiti was wide of the plate and he dove for Pilarcik just as he touched the plate in the fifth inning of the first game of the Orioles-Athletics doubleheader Friday night at Baltimore. Orioles won, 8-2. (UPI Telephoto)

Lawrenceville Posts First City League Victory, 5-0

After four straight poundings, Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 finally nailed its first City Baseball League victory Friday night as Phil Hewitt tossed a two-hitter and blanked the Merchants, 5-0, at Patterson Field.

Hewitt, home from minor league action, limited Manager John Andrason's Merchants to a pair of singles in his seven - inning stint on the mound.

The victory for Manager Vic Reed's West Virginia nine moved Lawrenceville into a deadlock with the Merchants for last place in the league standings.

The husky Hewitt, a Georgetown product, showed good control in picking up his first pitching victory of the season. Hewitt fanned nine and issued no walks while besting Red Hanlon of the Merchants.

The righthander was in trouble only one time when a Merchant runner reached third with only one down. However, he fanned Peck and retired Jack O'Rourke on a fly to right field to kill the Merchant rally.

Hanlon and Burke both saw hurling duty for the losers, with Hanlon walking four and getting tagged for six hits in four innings. Burke walked a pair, fanned three and gave up one run in two innings.

Hewitt slammed two doubles to spark Lawrenceville's hitting attack, while Jim Gill stroked a pair of singles.

Rogers and Larry Vermillion ruined Hewitt's bid for a no-hitter by coming through with singles.

Score Will Try To Snap Yankee Win Streak Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Cleveland's Herb Score, twice a victor over the New York Yankees, tries to halt the world champions' winning streak at four games today at Yankee Stadium. Opposing him will be Duke Maas (4-4).

The hard-throwing left - hander (7-3) is the Indians' biggest winner.

Before a crowd of 52,509, the Yankees edged the Tribe 3-2 Friday night, getting the winning run through a throwing error by shortstop Woodie Held in the sixth inning. In the top half of the inning, Minnie Minoso was called out when he tried to steal home to break a 2-2 tie with two out and the bases loaded.

The Indians and the Yanks are all squared at four games apiece for the season. Four of the games have been decided by a single run.

Friday night's game was a squeaker all the way.

A brilliant relief job by rookie Jim Coates—he gave up only one hit in 3 1-3 innings of scoreless pitching—nailed down the victory for New York.

Gary Bell, who had his record evened at 6-6 by the loss, held the Yanks to an infield single for four innings but New York scored two runs in the fifth.

After starter Whitey Ford opened with a single and was forced at second on a play that injured his ankle, Bell walked Norm Siebern, Mickey Mantle flied out and Yogi Berra rapped a single to right field. It was the veteran catcher's 1,200th run batted in.

Bell, struggling to conquer his wildness all night, then hit Bill Skowron with a pitch and uncorked a wild pitch which permitted Siebern to score.

The Indians counted all their runs in the sixth when they got three of their eight hits.

That was all for Ford. Coates came in to walk Billy Martin purposely, filling up the bases. With a 0-1 count on Bell, Minoso made his unsuccessful dash for the plate.

The Yankees' winning run was tallied in the sixth. Bobby Richardson hit a grounder to deep shortstop. Held went into the hole and his long throw was wide of first, permitting Richardson to continue on to second base. The next two men were retired easily, but Hank Bauer then lined a single to left and Richardson scored the deciding marker.

Chester Legion, Burbicks, Millirons Win LL Games

Chester Legion swept to its third straight victory in Little League action Friday night to remain the lone undefeated nine in either the National or the American Divisions.

The Legion entry bounced the Medics, 7-2, behind the five-hit pitching of Bob Maltarich who fanned eight and walked none.

Burbicks, another National Division pace - setter, walloped McBurneys, 14-9, and Millirons romped over Golden Star, 13-4, in other games.

The heavy - hitting Chester Legion squad was sparked by the batting of Dennis Horger and Ray Betteridge, who each slammed home runs and singles. Kenny Brewer helped out in the 11-hit attack by smashing a pair of doubles.

Maltarich bested Dave Chetwynd to pick up the Legion victory. Phil Stewart with two singles led the Medics in the hitting department.

Smith with a home run and a double, and Clutter with a pair of singles led the winners. Null and Pasco showed doubles and singles for McBurneys. Taylor for McBurneys tripled and added a single.

Although each squad collected a dozen hits each, Millirons racked up nine runs in the seventh inning to whip Golden Star. Burke whiffed six batters in pitching Millirons to the victory. Wilshaw was charged with the loss. Golden Star committed five errors.

Johnson had a good night at the plate for the winners, slamming a home run, a double and two singles in five trips. Raimond also socked a homer.

Wilshaw hit a homer, and Clendenning two singles and a double in four trips to the plate for Golden Star.

Schmidt's Fine Relief Wasted As Reds Lose

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Watch the Cincinnati Reds give more pitching relief work to an old workhorse, Willard Schmidt, in the next few weeks.

It's hardly a secret that the team needs a good fireman and Schmidt Friday night kept the Los Angeles Dodgers nearly harmless for nearly seven innings in a superb relief job.

The Dodgers had belted out five runs in the first inning and went on to win 6-2.

The 30-year-old hurler has had little work this season.

He has pitched 33 2-3 innings for the Reds now, and been tagged for 40 hits and 18 runs. Not so good for a reliefer.

But he has spots where he's very effective, like Friday night. He gave up four hits and one run—Duke Snider's second home run of the evening, in the seventh inning.

Schmidt had taken over for Brooks Lawrence in the first inning after the Redleg starter was shelled for five hits and four runs.

John Roseboro clicked off a run-making single, but the Dodgers got little else from Schmidt after the first inning. Luis Arroyo finished the last inning for him, after a pinch-hitter in the eighth sent him to the showers.

The Reds picked up one run in the fourth inning when Vada Pinson walked and scored all the way from first on Frank Robinson's single. Frank Thomas lashed a home run in the seventh inning—his first since May 4.

Los Angeles started off cuffing Lawrence around with singles by Charley Neal and Wally Moon and Snider's first home run of the evening.

Gil Hodges and Don Demeter followed with consecutive doubles for a fourth marker and Lawrence gave up the job. Roseboro's single made it 5-0 before Schmidt got things under control.

Talbot Hurls No-Hitter In Church Loop

Gail Talbott turned in the first no-hitter of the season in the YMCA-Church Softball League Friday as Second Church of Christ defeated Oakland Free Methodist, 2-1.

While holding the Oakland nine hitless, Talbott also drove in the winning run. Dan Barton, the losing hurler, gave up only three hits.

First Christian unleashed an 18-hit attack to make it five straight with a 20-3 win over First Methodist.

Harry Wolfe pitched a six-hitter for First Christian and struck out six batters as his teammates gave him some solid support.

Cletus Payne, the leadoff hitter, collected five hits in six trips including four doubles.

Gary Kemple and Bob Bickle homered for the First Christian team. Bill Brokaw with a double and single and John Watson's homer paced the losers.

Jerry Seevers hurled a no-hitter as Grace United Presbyterian walloped First Methodist, 10-0. Seevers fanned six batters.

Tice and Knowles led the winners with three hits each as the Grace UP entry chalked up its four straight victory.

Chester Christian whipped Calcutta United Presbyterian, 16-3, as Jack Bryan socked a pair of homers for the winners.

3 Cuban Fighters Win; Return To Garden Set

NEW YORK (AP)—The Cubans have landed and the situation is well in hand.

A three-man invasion team from Havana established a beach head Friday night at Madison Square Garden. All three will be back Aug. 7.

The familiar cry of "arriba" that used to greet Kid Gavilan's flurries echoed in the Garden for welterweight Florentino Fernandez and lightweights Carlos Hernandez and Douglas Vaillant. Although Hernandez was born in Caracas, Venezuela, Cuba claims him as its own because he has had all his pro fights in Havana.

Fernandez, the "big boy" of the trio, stopped Stefan Redl, Hungarian - born resident of Passaic, N.J., in 1:07 of the seventh round. Fernandez is a well-packed 144½-pounder with a solid left hook. Redl, stopped for the first time in his 28-bout career, weighed 147 pounds.

It was a strange ending. Fernandez was winning going away when he planted a left hook on Redl's jaw. Down went Stefan in his own corner. He came up at nine, just beating the 10 - count. Referee Harry Ebbets took a look and asked, "Are you all right?" Redl said, "Yes" and then proceeded to walk out with his hands down. Ebbets quickly jumped between the men to stop it.

In his dressing room Redl said he thought the fight was over but claimed he could have continued. All three officials had Fernandez, a 23 - year-old unbeaten boxer-puncher, way out front. It was his 20th straight victory and his 16th straight knockout. Judge Joe Agnello had it 6-0, Judge Mike Davodowich 4-2 and Referee Ebbets 5-1. The AP card agreed with Ebbets.

About 5,000 saw Hernandez, 133½, win his ninth straight by outpointing Luke Easter of Pittsburgh, 136, in eight rounds.

The other Cuban making his U.S. debut was Vaillant, 134½, a lopsided winner over Jimmy Grow of Lewiston, Idaho, 136, in a 10-rounder. Two officials scored it 10-0 and the other had it 8-1-1. Grow was cut under the left eye and on the Bridge of the nose. Vaillant, 21, is unbeaten in 18 pro fights.

Trainer George (Maje) Odom saddled his first winner on July 13, 1934 at the old Empire City track which is now Yonkers Raceway.

Connolly refused to discuss the reasons for his action, but said Friday night he handed in his written resignation to the school's president. He gave no hint of future plans.

The Very Rev. Paul L. O'Connor, Xavier president, refused to say anything about Connolly's action, and would not confirm or deny the coach's statement.

Yanks Shade Indians, 3-2, Close Within 2½ Games Of Top

INDIAN BITES DUST. Minnie Minoso bites the dust as he slides home in the sixth inning of Friday night's game between the Indians and Yanks at Yankee Stadium. Yanks' catcher Yogi Berra covers the plate as Minoso attempts to steal to break a 2-2 tie. Umpire Berry ruled Minnie was a dead Indian. Yanks won, 3-2. (UPI Telephoto)

Orioles Sweep 2; Tigers Edge Nats

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Yankees are back in business with the help of newcomer Jim Coates.

Hank Bauer and Yogi Berra had the clutch hits Friday night as the Yankees, still fifth, closed within 2½ games of the top with a 3-2 victory over Cleveland's American League leading Indians.

But it was Coates who put it away. The big rookie, 26, nailed the opener of a four-game series with one-hit pitching for 3 1-3 shutout innings in relief of injured Whitey Ford.

Coates came on after Ford, who blanked the Indians on four hits for four innings, gave way because of a sprained ankle in a tying, two-run sixth.

That rally ended with Minnie Minoso's thwarted theft of home and the Indians lost their second in a row after winning seven straight. They now have only a one-game lead over the Chicago White Sox and Baltimore Orioles, who are in a virtual tie for second.

The White Sox, idled by rain at Boston, have a .001 percentage point edge over the Orioles, who swept a twi-night pair from Kansas City 8-2 and 2-0.

Detroit retained fourth place by beating Washington 6-4 in 11 innings.

In the National League, San Francisco took first place from Milwaukee by a half-game, beating the Braves 4-3 with two runs in the 10th. Pittsburgh whipped St. Louis 6-0. Los Angeles defeated Cincinnati 6-2 and Philadelphia beat the Chicago Cubs 8-7.

The Yankees, only .042 points behind Cleveland, scored the clincher with an unearned run on Bauer's two-out single in the sixth.

Berra collected his 1,200th RBI with a two-out single for the first of two runs in the fifth. Loser Gary Bell (6-6), after blanking the Yankees on one hit for four frames, then wild pitched the other run home. Ford was injured sliding as he was forced at second in that inning.

The Orioles put away the sweep on a joint shutout by Skinny Brown and Billy Loes backed by Gus Triandos' 17th homer—the 100th of his career — and Bob Boyd's RBI single. Brown (4-2), gave up five of the A's seven hits in the last two innings. Loes saved it by retiring pinch hitter Ray Boone on a fly with the bases-loaded in the ninth.

Gene Woodling and Billy Gardner each homered and drove in three runs for Baltimore in the opener. Billy O'Dell (3-6) won it, allowing only four hits. Johnny Kucks (1-4) and Rip Coleman (2-5) were the losers for the A's, who have dropped seven straight.

The Tigers came from three runs back, tying it 4-all in the ninth on singles by Ted Lepcio and Frank Bolling and a force play. They broke it up with a pair in the 13th on an error, singles by Cott Veal and Eddie Yost and Larry Osborne's sacrifice fly. Barney Schultz won it in relief.

The Nats, blanked over the last eight innings by starter Paul Foytack and Schultz, scored three in the first on Faye Throneberry's solo homer and Harmon Killebrew's two-run homer. It was Killebrew's 24th, tops in the majors and even with Babe Ruth's record-60 pace of 1927.

KANSAS CITY catcher Harry Chiti tries in vain to put the tag in Al Pilarcik who scored on catcher Joe Ginsberg's long fly to Bill Tuttle in centerfield. Tuttle's throw to Chiti was wide of the plate and he dove for Pilarcik just as he touched the plate in the fifth inning of the first game of the Orioles-Athletics doubleheader Friday night at Baltimore. Orioles won, 8-2. (UPI Telephoto)

Lawrenceville Posts First City League Victory, 5-0

After four straight poundings, Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 finally nailed its first City Baseball League victory Friday night as Phil Hewitt tossed a two-hitter and blanked the Merchants, 5-0, at Patterson Field.

Hewitt, home from minor league action, limited Manager John Andrason's Merchants to a pair of singles in his seven - inning stint on the mound.

The victory for Manager Vic Reed's West Virginia nine moved Lawrenceville into a deadlock with the Merchants for last place in the league standings.

The husky Hewitt, a Georgetown product, showed good control in picking up his first pitching victory of the season. Hewitt fanned nine and issued no walks while besting Red Hanlon of the Merchants.

The righthander was in trouble only one time when a Merchant runner reached third with only one down. However, he fanned Peck and retired Jack O'Rourke on a fly to right field to kill the Merchant rally.

Hanlon and Burke both saw hurling duty for the losers, with Hanlon walking four and getting tagged for six hits in four innings. Burke walked a pair, fanned three and gave up one run in two innings.

Hewitt slammed two doubles to spark Lawrenceville's hitting attack, while Jim Gill stroked a pair of singles.

Rogers and Larry Vermillion ruined Hewitt's bid for a no-hitter by coming through with singles.

League-leading Cox Construction and second-place Irondale share the spotlight Sunday when they tangle at Irondale's Memorial Field.

Chester Legion, Burbicks, Millirons Win LL Games

Chester Legion swept to its third straight victory in Little League action Friday night to remain the lone undefeated nine in either the National or the American Divisions.

The Legion entry bounced the Medics, 7-2, behind the five-hit pitching of Bob Maltarich who fanned eight and walked none.

Burbicks, another National Division pace - setter, walloped McBurneys, 14-9, and Millirons romped over Golden Star, 13-4, in other games.

The heavy - hitting Chester Legion squad was sparked by the batting of Dennis Horger and Ray Betteridge, who each slammed home runs and singles. Kenny Brewer helped out in the 11-hit attack by smashing a pair of doubles.

Maltarich bested Dave Chetwynd to pick up the Legion victory. Phil Stewart with two singles led the Medics in the hitting department.

Smith with a home run and a double, and Clutter with a pair of singles led the winners. Null and Pasco showed doubles and singles for McBurneys. Taylor for McBurneys tripled and added a single.

Although each squad collected a dozen hits each, Millirons racked up nine runs in the seventh inning to whip Golden Star. Burke whiffed six batters in pitching Millirons to the victory. Wilshaw was charged with the loss. Golden Star committed five errors.

Johnson had a good night at the plate for the winners, slamming a home run, a double and two singles in five trips. Raimond also socked a homer.

Wilshaw hit a homer, and Clendenning two singles and a double in four trips to the plate for Golden Star.

Score Will Try To Snap Yankee Win Streak Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Cleveland's Herb Score, twice a victor over the New York Yankees, tries to halt the world champions' winning streak at four games today at Yankee Stadium. Opposing him will be Duke Maas (4-4).

The hard-throwing left - hander (7-3) is the Indians' biggest winner.

Before a crowd of 52,509, the Yankees edged the Tribe 3-2 Friday night, getting the winning run through a throwing error by shortstop Woodie Held in the sixth inning. In the top half of the inning, Minnie Minoso was called out when he tried to steal home to break a 2-2 tie with two out and the bases loaded.

The Indians and the Yanks are all squared at four games apiece for the season. Four of the games have been decided by a single run.

Friday night's game was a squeaker all the way.

A brilliant relief job by rookie Jim Coates—he gave up only one hit in 3 1-3 innings of scoreless pitching—nailed down the victory for New York.

Gary Bell, who had his record evened at 6-6 by the loss, held the Yanks to an infield single for four innings but New York scored two runs in the fifth.

After starter Whitey Ford opened with a single and was forced at second on a play that injured his ankle, Bell walked Norm Siebern, Mickey Mantle flied out and Yogi Berra rapped a single to right field. It was the veteran catcher's 1,200th run batted in.

Bell, struggling to conquer his wildness all night, then hit Bill Skowron with a pitch and uncorked a wild pitch which permitted Siebern to score.

The Indians counted all their runs in the sixth when they got three of their eight hits.

That was all for Ford. Coates came in to walk Billy Martin purposely, filling up the bases. With a 0-1 count on Bell, Minoso made his unsuccessful dash for the plate.

The Yankees' winning run was tallied in the sixth. Bobby Richardson hit a grounder to deep shortstop. Held went into the hole and his long throw was wide of first, permitting Richardson to continue on to second base. The next two men were retired easily, but Hank Bauer then lined a single to left and Richardson scored the deciding marker.

Schmidt's Fine Relief Wasted As Reds Lose

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Watch the Cincinnati Reds give more pitching relief work to an old workhorse, Willard Schmidt, in the next few weeks.

It's hardly a secret that the team needs a good fireman and Schmidt Friday night kept the Los Angeles Dodgers nearly harmless for nearly seven innings in a superb relief job.

The Dodgers had belted out five runs in the first inning and went on to win 6-2.

The 30-year-old hurler has had little work this season.

He has pitched 33 2-3 innings for the Reds now, and been tagged for 40 hits and 18 runs. Not so good for a reliefer.

But he has spots where he's very effective, like Friday night. He gave up four hits and one run—Duke Snider's second home run of the evening, in the seventh inning.

Schmidt had taken over for Brooks Lawrence in the first inning after the Redleg starter was shelled for five hits and four runs.

John Roseboro clicked off a run-making single, but the Dodgers got little else from Schmidt after the first inning. Luis Arroyo finished the last inning for him, after a pinch-hitter in the eighth sent him to the showers.

The Reds picked up one run in the fourth inning when Vada Pinson walked and scored all the way from first on Frank Robinson's single. Frank Thomas lashed a home run in the seventh inning—his first since May 4.

Los Angeles started off cuffing Lawrence around with singles by Charley Neal and Wally Moon and Snider's first home run of the evening.

Gil Hodges and Don Demeter followed with consecutive doubles for a fourth marker and Lawrence gave up the job. Roseboro's single made it 5-0 before Schmidt got things under control.

Talbot Hurls No-Hitter In Church Loop

Gail Talbott turned in the first no-hitter of the season in the YMCA-Church Softball League Friday as Second Church of Christ defeated Oakland Free Methodist, 2-1.

While holding the Oakland nine hitless, Talbott also drove in the winning run. Dan Barton, the losing hurler, gave up only three hits.

First Christian unleashed an 18-hit attack to make it five straight with a 20-3 win over First Methodist.

Harry Wolfe pitched a six-hitter for First Christian and struck out six batters as his teammates gave him some solid support.

Cletus Payne, the leadoff hitter, collected five hits in six trips including four doubles.

Gary Kemple and Bob Bickle homered for the First Christian team. Bill Brokaw with a double and single and John Watson's homer paced the losers.

Jerry Seevers hurled a no-hitter as Grace United Presbyterian walloped First Methodist, 10-0. Seevers fanned six batters.

Tice and Knowles led the winners with three hits each as the Grace UP entry chalked up its four straight victory.

Chester Christian whipped Calcutta United Presbyterian, 16-3, as Jack Bryan socked a pair of homers for the winners.

Atesa Sprints To New World Record At Waterford Park

Daily Double Pays $409 At Local Track

Atesa, a six-year-old mare, set a world record of 1:23 for seven furlongs on the turf Friday at Waterford Park.

Second choice in the betting to No Excuse, L. S. Oberholser's entry moved from far back to smash a previous record shared by two other horses. Atesa surged past No Excuse to win by a nose in the sixth event over the infield turf course.

The previous record was 1:23-1-5 and was shared by Summer Solstice at Hawthorne on September 24, 1955, and Lofty Peak, at Pimlico on May 14, 1956.

Atesa, in recording her fifth victory this year, returned $7.20, $3.60 and $2.60 across the board. No Excuse paid backers $3.40 and $2.60. The show horse was Fighting Low, paying $4.40.

Rollin Reynolds was in the stirrups for Atesa's world record breaking gallop—the 18th time she has been in the money out of 20 times at the post this year.

A 7-10 daily double paid a whopping $409.80 to $2 ticket holders.

Jofin, a 25-1 shot, romped home in the second race under the whip of G. Vourous and paid $62.20, $27.-80 and $11.40. Regis, with P. Ernst aboard, showed his heels in the first race and returned $15.-$8.20 and $4.20.

Going All-Out To Hold First Place, Rigney Says

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "We're going to break our necks trying to stay in first place," declared Manager Bill Rigney after his San Francisco Giants finally dislodged the Milwaukee Braves from the top spot.

"That was a big one we needed," Rigney added after Jackie Brandt's single in the 10th inning Friday night knocked in two runs to beat the slumping Braves 4-3.

Jackie, who already had collected two hits for the evening, declared, "I don't know whether I hit a slider or a fast ball, but it went where I wanted it to go."

The big hit came at the expense of reliever Don McMahon with the bases loaded and none out.

It gave Milwaukee its 11th loss in the past 16 games and moved the Giants ahead by one-half game.

Big Sam Jones, going the route, missed getting his own decider in the ninth when his long drive hit the left field fence just short of a homer. And he almost lost the game in the top of the 10th when Bill Bruton hit a debatable home run to give the Braves a 3-2 lead.

Willie Mays claimed Bruton's hit never left the playing field but was knocked down by a fan. But it counted.

The Giants finally caught up with starter Bob Buhl as he walked Mays, and Orlando Cepeda singled him to third. McMahon came on to walk Daryl Spencer. Then Brandt singled past second baseman Casey Wise.

"I was trying to hit in that direction so we'd be sure of getting at least one run and it wouldn't be a double play," Brandt explained.

Roberts Wins Seniors Golf

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — John Roberts of Columbus captured the Ohio Seniors golf championship Friday to prove the old adage about the third time being the charm.

Twice before he had failed in the attempt. On one of those occasions he tied for top honors, only to lose out in a playoff.

Lady Luck had nothing to do with his victory Friday; in fact, she wasn't even near his corner, even though it was his home course at Scioto Country Club on which he was playing.

His score for the final 18 holes of the 36-hole tournament was an eight-over-par 80, poor in comparison with his three-under-par 69 in Thursday's initial round. The 69 had equalled the lowest mark ever registered during the tourney's 19-year history.

But his 149 total was still five strokes better than his three nearest competitors in the starting field of 140 golfers 55 years old and over.

Tied for second at 154 were A. J. King and Harry Sweitzer of Cleveland and George Grathwold of Cincinnati.

Next came Allen Rankin of Columbus with 156. It was Rankin who beat Roberts out of the championship in the 1955 seniors playoff, and who had registered the only other 69 round in the tournament's history, in 1957.

Rankin, who failed in his bid for his 10th seniors crown in 19 years, was tied with Sweitzer at 75 after the opening round.

Lew Hoad, Frank Sedgman, Pancho Gonzales, Ken Rosewall, Pancho Segura and Tony Trabert also are entered.

Aussie Golf Star Cards 135, Leads In Canadian Open

MONTREAL (AP) — Bruce Crampton, a good looking 23-year-old Australian, led the way into the third round of the Canadian Open today.

His two-day total of 135, nine under par for the Islesmere course, left him with only a one-stroke margin over three top pros from the United States. A half dozen others were within shooting range of the lead.

"I was putting quite well today and I was driving well," Crampton said Friday after shooting a nifty 67 to take the tournament lead.

One stroke back at 136 as the 100 survivors went into the third round were Art Wall Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa., PGA Champion Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., and Bob Rosburg of Palo Alto, Calif.

Very much in the running with 137s were Doug Ford and Jay Hebert while Billy Maxwell, Don Fairfield and Walker Inman Jr. had 138s.

Mary's Joan Captures Hamilton Feature Pace

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Mary's Joan, a fast pacer based at Englewood, Ohio, captured both ends of the featured divided pace at Hamilton Raceway Friday night.

The five-year-old bah mare had to beat out the favorite, Palmer Reed Cash, to capture the first dash—over a one mile course—in 2:07 3-5.

But Driver Marion Stephens of Greenville got the sidewheeler up among the leaders in the second dash and Mary's Joan took over the lead in the backstretch, finishing the 1 1-16 mile test with a two-length triumph after a 2:15 tour.

Stephens also brought in a winner in Butch Frisco in the night's last race.

Spencer Colby and Bravril combined for a $14 daily double.

Burbicks Beat Woodbine, 9-5

Burbicks moved into a tie for second place in the Pony League by defeating Woodbine, 9-5. The victory gives Burbicks and Woodbine identical 3-5 records.

A four-run fifth inning provided the clincher for the winners Friday at Dopler Field.

Burbicks took advantage of eight doubles and Hickman and Howell with two hits apiece.

Burns received credit for the victory allowing five hits. Noland, one of two Woodbine hurlers, was checked with the loss.

Noland belted a double and single for two of the losers' five safeties.

O'Brien Sets Shot Record

By FRANK PITMAN

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—A meet record by shotputter Parry O'Brien stood today as the only new mark as the National AAU Track and Field Championships moved past the halfway mark.

O'Brien pushed the iron ball 62 feet 2¼ inches Friday to win his seventh AAU crown but it was short of his world record 63-2. O'Brien's AAU mark set last year was 61-11¼.

Two collegiate stars, sprinter Ray Norton of San Jose State and hurdler Dick Howard of New Mexico, succeeded to championships long held by Bobby Morrow and Glenn Davis.

Morrow, hampered by a sore thigh muscle for the past month, ran dead last against eight others in a qualifying heat and failed to make the 100-meter finals. Morrow won the century three out of the last four years in the AAU. He will defend his other dash championship in the 200 meters today.

Norton copped the 100 by a hairbreadth over San Jose teammate, Bobby Poynter. Both were clocked at 10.5 seconds. Norton's qualifying 10.4 was the day's best time.

Howard, NCAA low hurdle champion, never trailed in dealing Davis his first defeat in the 400 meters since the Olympic previews at Brooklyn in 1956. Davis missed his stride on the first hurdle and kicked the fourth. He made a desperate closing bid to catch Howard but failed by three yards.

Harold Connoily of the Southern California Striders won his fifth straight hammer championship ship with a throw of 216 feet 10 inches. North Carolina College's Lee Calhoun captured his third straight AAU title with a 14-second victory in the 110-meter high hurdles.

Giants Overhaul Braves To Snare National Lead

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

If you think Sam Jones is the hero of the hour now that San Francisco has shoved Milwaukee's Braves out of the National League lead, forget it. Sad Sam is the Giants' hero of the month.

It took Jackie Brandt's two-run single in the bottom of the 10th to put the Giants .006 percentage points and a half-game ahead with a 4-3 victory over the Braves Friday night, but it figures as the least they could do for Jones.

The big right-hander had given up two runs and five hits in the first three innings—then allowed only three hits the rest of the way. Two of those came in the 10th and two were by Billy Bruton, whose fifth homer gave Milwaukee a 3-2 edge in the top of the 10th.

Then the Giants chased Bob Buhl and ended Milwaukee's first-place stay that had begun May 13.

Ironically, it was Jones who was the loser when the Giants fell from first place May 5. And it was Jones who was beaten 4-2 by Milwaukee May 18, the day before the Braves took a 4½-game lead over the Giants.

Since then, a month to the day, the Giants have won 19—and Sad Sam has figured in more than a third of those victories. Now 8-6, Jones has won five of six decisions in that span and has added two saves in relief, having a hand in 7 of the 19 victories in the Giants comeback.

Third-place Pittsburgh closed within two games of the top with a 6-0 victory over St. Louis. Los Angeles rapped Cincinnati 6-2, and Philadelphia defeated Chicago's Cubs 8-7.

In the American League, New York's Fifth - place Yankees clipped Cleveland 3-2 trimming the Indians' lead to two games. Baltimore gained a virtual second-place tie with the Chicago White Sox (idled by rain at Boston) by sweeping a twi-night pair from Kansas City 8-2 and 2-0. Detroit beat Washington 6-4 in 13 innings.

The Giants, who tied it 2-all on Jim Davenport's single, a walk and two force outs in the fifth, put it away after Buhl (6-5) walked Willie Mays leading off the 10th. Orlando Cepeda's only hit, a single, sent Willie scampering to third and chased Buhl. Reliever Don McMahon then walked Daryl Spencer, loading the bases for Brandt's third single.

Jones struck out nine and walked but three while gaining a 3-1 season record against the Braves.

The Giants now have won three in a row, while the Braves have lost five of their last seven.

Vern Law (7-4) shut out the seventh-place Cardinals on four singles, two by Gino Cimoli. The Pirates, winning seven of their last nine, backed him with eight hits, including homers by Ramon Mejias and Dick Groat against rookie Dick Ricketts (0-2).

Duke Snider drove in four runs with a pair of homers for the Dodgers. His first, with two on, triggered a five-run first inning that handed Brooks Lawrence (3-8) his seventh defeat in a row.

The Phils had homers from Harry Anderson and Ed Bouchee while building a 7-2 lead, but needed an unearned run in the seventh to nail it. Gene Conley (4-3) won it, but gave way to relief after Ernie Banks' two-run, 19th homer in the sixth inning. Rookie Bob Anderson (3-6) was the loser.

Flowers Halts Buffalo, 5-0, For Richmond

By The Associated Press

There are some who toil long and reap small rewards. Such is Ben Flowers, a pitcher for Richmond in the International League.

Friday night, however, Flowers had a moment of glory.

Making his 12th start in the crucial Richmond - Buffalo series, Flowers won his first game of the season, limiting the league-leading Bisons to six hits as the Virgianians won handily 5-0.

The 32-year-old right - hander's previous labors — 73 innings of work — had netted him exactly three losses. But Flowers' clutch performance pushed him into the spotlight as he moved Richmond to within a half game of first place.

In other games Friday night, third-place Rochester had to go 12 innings before pulling out a 3-1 victory over Columbus and Montreal and Havana split a pair. The Royals won the first 5-0 and dropped the nightcap 7-3. Toronto and Miami were rained out.

Back to back home runs by pinch hitter Chuck Staniland and Charlie James off tiring Columbus starter Lynn Lovenguth gave the Red Wings their extra inning victory. The Wings had tied it in the ninth on Wally Shannon's homer. It was the 12th loss in 16 games for the sixth-place Jets since they began their plunge from first on June 5.

Unpredictable Silky Sullivan Does It Again

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — They gave Silky Sullivan something less than a standing ovation when he came onto the track.

But when the race was run, most of the 24,000 horse racing fans were on their feet cheering.

For Silky, the unpredictable, had done it again. Win, that is, with his customary pulse-straining burst of speed down the stretch at Hollywood Park.

In two previous races, the rascal had flopped. His admirers were plainly annoyed. There was hardly a hand clapped as he paraded past the clubhouse, and just a scattering of welcome as he trotted on down past the grandstand.

The race was the $10,000 Monterey Purse at seven furlongs. Aboard was Willie Shoemaker.

As expected, Silky promptly fell back and at one time was some 10 lengths off the pace. Then came the turn for home, with Silky racing wide and wonderfully. He collared the field and won by a length and three-quarters.

Atesa Sprints To New World Record At Waterford Park

Daily Double Pays $409 At Local Track

Atesa, a six-year-old mare, set a world record of 1:23 for seven furlongs on the turf Friday at Waterford Park.

Second choice in the betting to No Excuse, L. S. Oberholser's entry moved from far back to smash a previous record shared by two other horses. Atesa surged past No Excuse to win by a nose in the sixth event over the infield turf course.

The previous record was 1:23-1-5 and was shared by Summer Solstice at Hawthorne on September 24, 1955, and Lofty Peak, at Pimlico on May 14, 1956.

Atesa, in recording her fifth victory this year, returned $7.20, $3.60 and $2.60 across the board. No Excuse paid backers $3.40 and $2.60. The show horse was Fighting Low, paying $4.40.

Rollin Reynolds was in the stirrups for Atesa's world record breaking gallop—the 18th time she has been in the money out of 20 times at the post this year.

A 7-10 daily double paid a whopping $409.80 to $2 ticket holders.

Jofin, a 25-1 shot, romped home in the second race under the whip of G. Vourous and paid $62.20, $27.-80 and $11.40. Regis, with P. Ernst aboard, showed his heels in the first race and returned $15.-$8.20 and $4.20.

Another good return for the day came in the eighth race when Emeles rewarded its backers $27.80, $8.40 and $5.80.

Burbicks Beat Woodbine, 9-5

Burbicks moved into a tie for second place in the Pony League by defeating Woodbine, 9-5. The victory gives Burbicks and Woodbine identical 3-5 records.

A four-run fifth inning provided the clincher for the winners Friday at Dopler Field.

Burbicks took advantage of eight doubles and Hickman and Howell with two hits apiece.

Burns received credit for the victory allowing five hits. Noland, one of two Woodbine hurlers, was checked with the loss.

Noland belted a double and single for two of the losers' five safeties.

Giants Overhaul Braves To Snare National Lead

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

If you think Sam Jones is the hero of the hour now that San Francisco has shoved Milwaukee's Braves out of the National League lead, forget it. Sad Sam is the Giants' hero of the month.

It took Jackie Brandt's two-run single in the bottom of the 10th to put the Giants .006 percentage points and a half-game ahead with a 4-3 victory over the Braves Friday night, but it figures as the least they could do for Jones.

The big right-hander had given up two runs and five hits in the first three innings—then allowed only three hits the rest of the way. Two of those came in the 10th and two were by Billy Bruton, whose fifth homer gave Milwaukee a 3-2 edge in the top of the 10th.

Then the Giants chased Bob Buhl and ended Milwaukee's first-place stay that had begun May 13.

Ironically, it was Jones who was the loser when the Giants fell from first place May 5. And it was Jones who was beaten 4-2 by Milwaukee May 18, the day before the Braves took a 4½-game lead over the Giants.

Since then, a month to the day, the Giants have won 19—and Sad Sam has figured in more than a third of those victories. Now 8-6, Jones has won five of six decisions in that span and has added two saves in relief, having a hand in 7 of the 19 victories in the Giants comeback.

Third-place Pittsburgh closed within two games of the top with a 6-0 victory over St. Louis. Los Angeles rapped Cincinnati 6-2, and Philadelphia defeated Chicago's Cubs 8-7.

In the American League, New York's Fifth - place Yankees clipped Cleveland 3-2 trimming the Indians' lead to two games. Baltimore gained a virtual second-place tie with the Chicago White Sox (idled by rain at Boston) by sweeping a twi-night pair from Kansas City 8-2 and 2-0. Detroit beat Washington 6-4 in 13 innings.

The Giants, who tied it 2-all on Jim Davenport's single, a walk and two force outs in the fifth, put it away after Buhl (6-5) walked Willie Mays leading off the 10th. Orlando Cepeda's only hit, a single, sent Willie scampering to third and chased Buhl. Reliever Don McMahon then walked Daryl Spencer, loading the bases for Brandt's third single.

Jones struck out nine and walked but three while gaining a 3-1 season record against the Braves.

The Giants now have won three in a row, while the Braves have lost five of their last seven.

Vern Law (7-4) shut out the seventh-place Cardinals on four singles, two by Gino Cimoli. The Pirates, winning seven of their last nine, backed him with eight hits, including homers by Ramon Mejias and Dick Groat against rookie Dick Ricketts (0-2).

Duke Snider drove in four runs with a pair of homers for the Dodgers. His first, with two on, triggered a five-run first inning that handed Brooks Lawrence (3-8) his seventh defeat in a row.

The Phils had homers from Harry Anderson and Ed Bouchee while building a 7-2 lead, but needed an unearned run in the seventh to nail it. Gene Conley (4-3) won it, but gave way to relief after Ernie Banks' two-run, 19th homer in the sixth inning. Rookie Bob Anderson (3-6) was the loser.

Ohio's Derby Slated Today

Going All-Out To Hold First Place, Rigney Says

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "We're going to break our necks trying to stay in first place," declared Manager Bill Rigney after his San Francisco Giants finally dislodged the Milwaukee Braves from the top spot.

"That was a big one we needed," Rigney added after Jackie Brandt's single in the 10th inning Friday night knocked in two runs to beat the slumping Braves 4-3.

Jackie, who already had collected two hits for the evening, declared, "I don't know whether I hit a slider or a fast ball, but it went where I wanted it to go."

The big hit came at the expense of reliever Don McMahon with the bases loaded and none out.

It gave Milwaukee its 11th loss in the past 16 games and moved the Giants ahead by one-half game.

Big Sam Jones, going the route, missed getting his own decider in the ninth when his long drive hit the left field fence just short of a homer. And he almost lost the game in the top of the 10th when Bill Bruton hit a debatable home run to give the Braves a 3-2 lead.

Willie Mays claimed Bruton's hit never left the playing field but was knocked down by a fan. But it counted.

The Giants finally caught up with starter Bob Buhl as he walked Mays, and Orlando Cepeda singled him to third. McMahon came on to walk Daryl Spencer. Then Brandt singled past second baseman Casey Wise.

"I was trying to hit in that direction so we'd be sure of getting at least one run and it wouldn't be a double play," Brandt explained.

Flowers Halts Buffalo, 5-0, For Richmond

By The Associated Press

There are some who toil long and reap small rewards. Such is Ben Flowers, a pitcher for Richmond in the International League.

Friday night, however, Flowers had a moment of glory.

Making his 12th start in the crucial Richmond - Buffalo series, Flowers won his first game of the season, limiting the league-leading Bisons to six hits as the Virginians won handily 5-0.

The 32-year-old right - hander's previous labors — 73 innings of work — had netted him exactly three losses. But Flowers' clutch performance pushed him into the spotlight as he moved Richmond to within a half game of first place.

In other games Friday night, third-place Rochester had to go 12 innings before pulling out a 3-1 victory over Columbus and Montreal and Havana split a pair. The Royals won the first 5-0 and dropped the nightcap 7-3. Toronto and Miami were rained out.

Back to back home runs by pinch hitter Chuck Staniland and Charlie James off tiring Columbus starter Lynn Lovenguth gave the Red Wings their extra inning victory. The Wings had tied it in the ninth on Wally Shannon's homer. It was the 12th loss in 16 games for the sixth-place Jets since they began their plunge from first on June 5.

O'Brien Sets Shot Record

By FRANK PITMAN

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—A meet record by shotputter Parry O'Brien stood today as the only new mark as the National AAU Track and Field Championships moved past the halfway mark.

O'Brien pushed the iron ball 62 feet 2¼ inches Friday to win his seventh AAU crown but it was short of his world record 63-2. O'Brien's AAU mark set last year was 61-11¼.

Two collegiate stars, sprinter Ray Norton of San Jose State and hurdler Dick Howard of New Mexico, succeeded to championships long held by Bobby Morrow and Glenn Davis.

Morrow, hampered by a sore thigh muscle for the past month, ran dead last against eight others in a qualifying heat and failed to make the 100-meter finals. Morrow won the century three out of the last four years in the AAU. He will defend his other dash championship in the 200 meters today.

Norton copped the 100 by a hairbreadth over San Jose teammate, Bobby Poynter. Both were clocked at 10.5 seconds. Norton's qualifying 10.4 was the day's best time.

Howard, NCAA low hurdle champion, never trailed in dealing Davis his first defeat in the 400 meters since the Olympic previews at Brooklyn in 1956. Davis missed his stride on the first hurdle and kicked the fourth. He made a desperate closing bid to catch Howard but failed by three yards.

Harold Connoily of the Southern California Striders won his fifth straight hammer championship ship with a throw of 216 feet 10 inches. North Carolina College's Lee Calhoun captured his third straight AAU title with a 14-second victory in the 110-meter high hurdles.

Roberts Wins Seniors Golf

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — John Roberts of Columbus captured the Ohio Seniors golf championship Friday to prove the old adage about the third time being the charm.

Twice before he had failed in the attempt. On one of those occasions he tied for top honors, only to lose out in a playoff.

Lady Luck had nothing to do with his victory Friday; in fact, she wasn't even near his corner, even though it was his home course at Scioto Country Club on which he was playing.

His score for the final 18 holes of the 36-hole tournament was an eight-over-par 80, poor in comparison with his three-under-par 69 in Thursday's initial round. The 69 had equalled the lowest mark ever registered during the tourney's 19-year history.

But his 149 total was still five strokes better than his three nearest competitors in the starting field of 140 golfers 55 years old and over.

Tied for second at 154 were A. J. King and Harry Sweitzer of Cleveland and George Grathwold of Cincinnati.

Next came Allen Rankin of Columbus with 156. It was Rankin who beat Roberts out of the championship in the 1955 seniors playoff, and who had registered the only other 69 round in the tournament's history, in 1957.

Rankin, who failed in his bid for his 10th seniors crown in 19 years, was tied with Sweitzer at 75 after the opening round.

Aussie Golf Star Cards 135, Leads In Canadian Open

MONTREAL (AP) — Bruce Crampton, a good looking 23-year-old Australian, led the way into the third round of the Canadian Open today.

His two-day total of 135, nine under par for the Islesmere course, left him with only a one-stroke margin over three top pros from the United States. A half dozen others were within shooting range of the lead.

"I was putting quite well today and I was driving well," Crampton said Friday after shooting a nifty 67 to take the tournament lead.

One stroke back at 136 as the 100 survivors went into the third round were Art Wall Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa., PGA Champion Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., and Bob Rosburg of Palo Alto, Calif.

Very much in the running with 137s were Doug Ford and Jay Hebert while Billy Maxwell, Don Fairfield and Walker Inman Jr. had 138s.

Mary's Joan Captures Hamilton Feature Pace

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Mary's Joan, a fast pacer based at Englewood, Ohio, captured both ends of the featured divided pace at Hamilton Raceway Friday night.

The five-year-old bah mare had to beat out the favorite, Palmer Reed Cash, to capture the first dash—over a one mile course—in 2:07 3-5.

But Driver Marion Stephens of Greenville got the sidewheeler up among the leaders in the second dash and Mary's Joan took over the lead in the backstretch, finishing the 1 1-16 mile test with a two-length triumph after a 2:15 tour.

Stephens also brought in a winner in Butch Frisco in the night's last race.

Spencer Colby and Bravril combined for a $14 daily double.

Rising Costs Cause Papers To Up Prices

NEW YORK (AP)—Rising costs have caused hundreds of newspapers to raise their prices in recent years—87 in the first four months of this year alone.

Some 400 increased prices in one or more circulation categories in 1958.

In announcing the new prices, the newspapers have cited increased costs of newsprint, wages, fringe benefits and various materials and services.

The trend is to more 7-cent and 10-cent papers.

A survey of more than 1,700 newspapers by the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. shows 483 now selling at 7 cents and 170 at 10 cents. Forty-nine cost six cents and eight of them eight cents.

The increases have diminished the number still selling for five cents to 991 — and in the whole United States only 13 still sell for less than a nickel.

The day of the two-cent paper of childhood memory is gone. The last to sell at that price was the Hanover, Pa., Sun which went to five cents last September. Five sell for three cents and eight for four cents.

The newspapers, in raising prices, have stressed particularly their higher costs for newsprint.

Higher wages and general business costs such as telephones and wires are among other factors cited.

The ANPA figures show that 165 newspapers have increased their price to 10 cents and 471 to 7 cents in the past 10 years while the number selling for 5 cents has dropped by 527.

The following chart, showing prices and number of newspapers charging them, reflects the change in the past decade:

| | 1959 | 1949 |
|---|---|---|
| 10 cents | 170 | 5 |
| 8 cents | 8 | 0 |
| 7 cents | 483 | 12 |
| 6 cents | 49 | 0 |
| 5 cents | 991 | 1,518 |
| 4 cents | 8 | 119 |
| 3 cents | 4 | 91 |
| 2 cents | 0 | 10 |

Additionally, three dailies sell for 15 cents—two in Alaska and the Journal of Commerce in New York.

Ike's Trick Knee Bothering Him— But He's Golfing

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower's trick knee is bothering him again — but not enough to stop his golf game. He set up another turn around the Gettysburg Country Club course this morning.

The President was hoping for luck on his seventh round of golf in 11 days. He has been a bit off his game lately.

Friday he had to contend not only with that knee but also a stiff wind. Eisenhower damaged the knee and simultaneously ended his football career at West Point years ago. And he was grumbling about "this old knee" as he started out from the first tee.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower plan to return to Washington late Sunday.

Intended To Return To Wife, Witness In Murder Trial Says

CINCINNATI (AP) — William Bergen says he intended to return to his estranged wife "if she would have me" although he was living with Edythe Klumpp as man-and-wife.

Bergen's testimony completed a major link in the trial of Mrs. Klumpp, 41, on charges of first-degree murder in the death of Bergen's wife, Louise, 32.

The prosecution hopes to complete the state's case by next Tuesday.

A weekend recess came after testimony Friday by Bergen and by Elvon Parkinson, a biochemist at Kettering Laboratory here.

The prosecution contends Mrs. Klumpp, a blonde divorcee, killed Mrs. Bergen because the younger woman would not consent to divorce her husband. The state maintains Mrs. Klumpp burned the woman's body next day—Oct. 31—at a state lake in nearby Clinton County.

Bergen, 30, now a federal civil service worker in Washington, was on the stand about two hours Friday, mostly under cross-examination by defense attorney William F. Hopkins.

Bergen said he gave Mrs. Klumpp a wedding ring and said, "We decided we would pass ourselves off as married. That seemed to be the only solution."

The witness repeated testimony that Mrs. Klumpp told him she was pregnant, later said she had a miscarriage, and still later, when he indicated he wanted to return to his wife, said she was pregnant again.

He said he didn't return after the miscarriage because "I was ashamed to see her (his wife) for one thing and the thought went through my head she wouldn't even have me back."

The defense has contended that Mrs. Bergen was shot accidentally as the two women grappled for a target pistol in Mrs. Klumpp's car.

Parkinson testified he found blood stains matching Mrs. Bergen's type in the Klumpp car and on the barrel and side of the .22 caliber target pistol owned by Bergen.

The defense has said it will call only five witnesses, including the defendent.

Rising Costs Cause Papers To Up Prices

NEW YORK (AP)—Rising costs have caused hundreds of newspapers to raise their prices in recent years—87 in the first four months of this year alone.

Some 400 increased prices in one or more circulation categories in 1958.

In announcing the new prices, the newspapers have cited increased costs of newsprint, wages, fringe benefits and various materials and services.

The trend is to more 7-cent and 10-cent papers.

A survey of more than 1,700 newspapers by the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. shows 483 now selling at 7 cents and 170 at 10 cents. Forty-nine cost six cents and eight of them eight cents.

The increases have diminished the number still selling for five cents to 991 — and in the whole United States only 13 still sell for less than a nickel.

The day of the two-cent paper of childhood memory is gone. The last to sell at that price was the Hanover, Pa., Sun which went to five cents last September. Five sell for three cents and eight for four cents.

The newspapers, in raising prices, have stressed particularly their higher costs for newsprint.

Higher wages and general business costs such as telephones and wires are among other factors cited.

The ANPA figures show that 165 newspapers have increased their price to 10 cents and 471 to 7 cents in the past 10 years while the number selling for 5 cents has dropped by 527.

The following chart, showing prices and number of newspapers charging them, reflects the change in the past decade:

| | 1959 | 1949 |
|---|---|---|
| 10 cents | 170 | 5 |
| 8 cents | 8 | 0 |
| 7 cents | 483 | 12 |
| 6 cents | 49 | 0 |
| 5 cents | 991 | 1,518 |
| 4 cents | 3 | 119 |
| 3 cents | 4 | 91 |
| 2 cents | 0 | 10 |

Additionally, three dailies sell for 15 cents—two in Alaska and the Journal of Commerce in New York.

Ike's Trick Knee Bothering Him— But He's Golfing

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower's trick knee is bothering him again — but not enough to stop his golf game. He set up another turn around the Gettysburg Country Club course this morning.

The President was hoping for luck on his seventh round of golf in 11 days. He has been a bit off his game lately.

Friday he had to contend not only with that knee but also a stiff wind. Eisenhower damaged the knee and simultaneously ended his football career at West Point years ago. And he was grumbling about "this old knee" as he started out from the first tee.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower plan to return to Washington late Sunday.

Intended To Return To Wife, Witness In Murder Trial Says

CINCINNATI (AP) — William Bergen says he intended to return to his estranged wife "if she would have me" although he was living with Edythe Klumpp as man-and-wife.

Bergen's testimony completed a major link in the trial of Mrs. Klumpp, 41, on charges of first-degree murder in the death of Bergen's wife, Louise, 32.

The prosecution hopes to complete the state's case by next Tuesday.

A weekend recess came after testimony Friday by Bergen and by Elvon Parkinson, a biochemist at Kettering Laboratory here.

The prosecution contends Mrs. Klumpp, a blonde divorcee, killed Mrs. Bergen because the younger woman would not consent to divorce her husband. The state maintains Mrs. Klumpp burned the woman's body next day—Oct. 31—at a state lake in nearby Clinton County.

Bergen, 30, now a federal civil service worker in Washington, was on the stand about two hours Friday, mostly under cross-examination by defense attorney William F. Hopkins.

Bergen said he gave Mrs. Klumpp a wedding ring and said, "We decided we would pass ourselves off as married. That seemed to be the only solution."

The witness repeated testimony that Mrs. Klumpp told him she was pregnant, later said she had a miscarriage, and still later, when he indicated he wanted to return to his wife, said she was pregnant again.

He said he didn't return after the miscarriage because "I was ashamed to see her (his wife) for one thing and the thought went through my head she wouldn't even have me back."

The defense has contended that Mrs. Bergen was shot accidentally as the two women grappled for a target pistol in Mrs. Klumpp's car.

Parkinson testified he found blood stains matching Mrs. Bergen's type in the Klumpp car and on the barrel and side of the .22 caliber target pistol owned by Bergen.

The defense has said it will call only five witnesses, including the defendent.

New Religious Sect Gaining Firm Foothold In Philippines

By M. P. SARMIENTO

MANILA (AP)—A comparatively new religious sect has gained a firm foothold in the predominantly Roman Catholic Philippines.

Founded by a Filipino in 1914, the "Iglesia ni Cristo" (literally Church of Christ) has grown from a mere handful to the most aggressive and close-knit of Philippine religious minorities.

There are no up-to-date official records but Director Leon Maria Gonzales of the Bureau of Census and Statistics says the Iglesia's claim of a million members is "close to being correct."

Other religious sects in the Philippines include Protestants, Moslems, Buddhists and Jews but 84 per cent of the 23 million Filipinos are Roman Catholics.

The top man of the Iglesia is Felix Manalo, 73-year-old former Protestant preacher who is looked upon by his followers as the source of salvation of their souls.

Manalo was a Seventh Day Adventist until he broke with the Adventist Central Office over doctrine and administrative policies. Then, it is claimed, he got a "message" from God.

It is told that after fasting for three days and nights to reassess his beliefs, Manalo decided to go out among the people and tell them of his message.

Basically, the Iglesia is a faith of the poor and middle class. It has neither priests nor saints. Even Manalo is titled merely "executive minister."

Its tenets are based on Revelations 7:1-3:

"And after these things, I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds, that the winds should not blow on the earth, nor on any sea nor on any tree.

"And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God; and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea.

"Saying, hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of God in their foreheads."

The Iglesia believes that the Big Four of World War I (Woodrow Wilson, Lloyd George, Georges Clemenceau and Vittorio Oralndo) might have plunged the world into a "more disastrous war" were it not for the timely appearance of Manalo, the prophesied angel from the east.

The Iglesia holds services on Thursday and Sunday. Its rituals are simple. Service usually consists of hymns, a prayer, the sermon and more prayers. The Iglesia does not believe in communions or confessions.

Symbols of the rise of this aggressive new faith are its chapels, some 3,000 in various parts of the country. They are given to fanciful towers and flashy facades.

Pupils Will Give Demonstrations

Demonstrations of the work of the pupils of the Vacation Bible School of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church during the past two weeks will highlight the closing exercises of the school Sunday night at 7:30. The Rev. Glenn Brunstetter is director.

Rev. Brunstetter will conduct the 10:30 a. m. worship and the Rev. Lewis C. Berger, superintendent of the Ohio Temperance League, will be the speaker.

The Church Choir will sing "He is Able to Deliver Thee."

Sunday School will convene at 9:30 with Wayne Standley superintendent.

Prayer service will be conducted Wednesday night by Norman Nicely, lay leader. The choir will rehearse at 8:30.

The full name of Madame de Pompadour, who really ruled France through King Louis XV for 20 years, was Jeanne Antionette Poisson le Normant d'Etioles.

Prayer Meetings Set Before Camp Meeting

"And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God; and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea.

"Saying, hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of God in their foreheads."

The Iglesia believes that the Big Four of World War I (Woodrow Wilson, Lloyd George, Georges Clemenceau and Vittorio Oralndo) might have plunged the world into a "more disastrous war" were it not for the timely appearance of Manalo, the prophesied angel from the east.

The Iglesia holds services on Thursday and Sunday. Its rituals are simple. Service usually consists of hymns, a prayer, the sermon and more prayers. The Iglesia does not believe in communions or confessions.

Symbols of the rise of this aggressive new faith are its chapels, some 3,000 in various parts of the country. They are given to fanciful towers and flashy facades.

Income Tax Office Still Open For Returns

A spokesman for the city income tax department today reminded the few who have not as yet filed their final returns for the 1958 city tax that the tax office still is open daily from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. and from 9 a. m. to noon on Saturdays.

Employes are on duty to assist the public with the filing of the returns. Any person or firm in East Liverpool or any person working in the city whose tax was not deducted by the employer and had an earned income between May 1 and Nov. 12, 1958, is required by law to file a final return.

Actual figures of earned income between the two dates are necessary to compare against previously made estimates before there can be adjustments, Refunds will be made to those who have overpaid while a few still owe part of their tax.

Anyone still in doubt about their tax status should telephone FU. 6-5165, the department said.

"Whether he's rich, poor or in-between, man needs God," the Rev. James Gardner told the Lions Club Friday afternoon at the Travelers Hotel, discussing "Christianity In High Places."

The pastor of the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church pointed out it is easy for those with wealth or fame to feel they do not need God just as it is easy for the poor to feel that God is not concerned with them.

"But man does not have peace until he rests in God," the minister said.

"God wants man and is good in dealing with us," Rev. Gardner continued, explaining the Bible verse that "God gave his only begotten son to redeem the world."

"God also is man's best friend if we put our faith in Him," he added.

Rev. Gardner cited the experiences of athletes, movie stars and government and business leaders who have expressed their faith in God and never have been ashamed of their religion.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Does metal deflect heat?

A. Yes. Do not leave a fork, spoon, or other metal article, in a pot which is desired to heat rapidly, as the metal will deflect the heat and prolong the time of reaching the boiling point.

Q. How can I make a good freckle solution?

A. Mix four ounces of lactic acid, one ounce of glycerin, and one ounce of rosewater. Or, try putting the juice of one lemon in half a cup of water and applying twice daily.

Q. How can I judge the freshness of an ear of corn when purchasing?

A. See that the husks are dry and green, and that there are no wrinkles in the ears.

Income Tax Office Still Open For Returns

A spokesman for the city income tax department today reminded the few who have not as yet filed their final returns for the 1958 city tax that the tax office still is open daily from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. and from 9 a. m. to noon on Saturdays.

Gas Utility Ends Rate Testimony

CHARLESTON (AP) — Witnesses who appeared on behalf of a request for a $2,078,000 annual gas rate increase for Manufacturers Light & Heat Co. will be cross-examined by the Public Service Commission staff Aug. 12.

Manufacturers completed Friday presentation of its case for higher rates for 49,000 customers in the Northern Panhandle.

The PSC also will present its own evidence in the rate case Aug. 12, the date to which the hearing was recessed.

The commission had already authorized, on an interim basis, a rate boost of $228,000 of the overall total of $2,078,000 asked by the gas firm.

The interim rate hike, in effect since May 15, was granted to offset higher charges imposed by Manufacturers' wholesale suppliers.

There has been no indication whether protesting municipalities will put on any witnesses when the hearing resumes. Wheeling, Wellsburg, Benwood, McMechen, Weirton, Chester and Follansbee are protesting the rate increase.

J. L. Erck, rate engineer for Manufacturers, was among witnesses yesterday. He explained the cost - of - service accounting on which the company based its application. Erck said the company's revenue deficiency is $2,150,344, or $72,052 a year more than the calculated yield of the proposed rates.

Candidates Qualify With Expense Report

All successful candidates in the May primaries qualified for the Nov. 3 general election by filing sworn expense statements before the deadline Friday afternoon, the County Election Board said.

The last expense statement from a winning candidate, a Lisbon man, was received about two hours before the deadline, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said. The election board had warned six aspirants in Wellsville, Lisbon and Salem they would be barred from the ticket for the Nov. 3 general election unless they complied with state law requiring submission of the expense statements.

O'Hanlon said several who lost out in the primaries will be affected because they failed to file the statements. The number of losers who failed to file still hasn't been determined, he added.

The board is required to mark the date the expense statments are submitted and the losers who either are delinquent or fail to file are barred from seeking office for five years.

City Business Still Maintains Lead Over '58

Although the effect of a 23-day pottery strike still showed up in the May indices, East Liverpool business and industrial activity finished the first five months of 1959 at levels generally ahead of the comparable period of 1958, the Chamber of Commerce reported today in its monthly summary of conditions.

Ten indices stand at points well ahead of their positions at the same time last year. Declines were shown in three. In a comparison of April and May activity, 5 indices showed gains and 8 dropped.

Despite the drop in personal income resulting from the pottery strike — which ended in mid-May — sales tax receipts last month hit levels 27.5 per cent ahead of April. The collections last month were $64,258 against $50,383 in April. In the first 5 months of the year, the collections stand at $260,618, up 16.6 per cent from the $223,640 shown at the same time in 1958.

Industrial payrolls at 11 plants stand at $5,088,929 for the first 5 months, off 7.8 per cent from the $5,522,002 recorded at the same time in 1958. Payrolls in May totaled $688,151, down 39.2 per cent from the $1,131,563 shown in April.

The pottery strike showed its effect on both April and May indices. Although it was settled on May 7, most of the workers were not back to their trades until the following week.

The plants had 3,793 on their payrolls in May, a decline of 12.7 per cent from the 4,343 listed in April. Employment at the 11 plants has averaged 4,159 monthly so far in 1959, down 5.4 per cent from the 4,398 average maintained in the first 5 months of 1958.

New passenger car registrations in Columbiana County jumped to 1,374 for the first 5 months of 1959, a gain of 28.5 per cent over the 1,069 recorded at the same time in 1958. New car sales totaled 271 last month, down 5.2 per cent from April's 286.

Sales of used cars hit 885 in May, off 11.1 per cent from the 996 listed in April. They stand at 4,511 for the first 5 months of 1959, but no comparative statistics are available for the same period of 1958.

The city's parking meter receipts stand at $23,499 for the first 5 months of the year, down 6.1 per cent from the $25,033 shown at the same time last year. They hit $4,820 in May, off 23.8 per cent from the $6,322 reported in April.

The city's relief case load fell from 82 in April to 75 in May, a decline of 8.5 per cent. It has averaged 89 monthly so far in 1959, down 16.8 per cent from the 107 average shown at the same time in 1958.

Inbound railroad carloadings stand at 1,552 for the first 5 months of 1959, a gain of 42.1 per cent over the 1,092 shown in the corresponding period of 1958. They totaled 271 in May, down 3.9 per cent from the 282 listed in April.

Outbound carloadings totaled 1,515 in the first 5 months of this year, a gain of 44.3 per cent over the 1,050 shown at the same time in 1958. They hit 290 in May, a gain of 8.6 per cent over the 267 shown in April.

Dam 8 at Newell locked through 1,678 boats in the first 5 months of 1959, up 17 per cent from the 1,434 tows listed at the same time in 1958. It listed 447 tows in May, down 2.4 per cent from the 458 reported in April. The traffic so far this year represents 7,614,105 tons of cargo, a gain of 26.5 per cent over the 6,018,800 shown at the same time in 1958. The tonnage in May was 1,780,000, up 2.2 per cent from April's 1,741,105.

Postal receipts stand at $102,442 for the first 5 months of 1959, a gain of 23.1 per cent over the $83,222 shown at the same time in 1958. They hit $15,940 in May, off 22 per cent from April's $20,440.

Bank clearings stand at $16,153,904 for the first 5 months of the year, up 4.1 per cent from the $15,522,296 shown at the same time in 1958. They totaled $3,096,289 in May, down 9.8 per cent from the $3,431,084 listed for the preceding month.

Bank debits have averaged $21,190,302 monthly so far in 1959, up 6 per cent from the $19,994,741 average maintained during the same period of 1958. They totaled $21,786,035 in May, up 1.2 per cent from the $21,517,125 shown in April.

During 1943 the only pennies minted in the United States were zinc-coated steel. This was to conserve copper for war defense purposes.

Sales Tax Revenues In County Still Climb

Weekly sales tax collections continue to show an improvement over the same period of last year in Columbiana County but cumulative collections for the current fiscal year are slightly behind, according to a report by State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson at Columbus.

Collections for the week ending June 6 totaled $42,668.05, compared with $33,841.24 the same period last year. Collections for the fiscal year to date total $1,725,411.20, compared with the $1,734,078.16 the preceding period. Ferguson said that over the state sales tax collections continue to show marked gains over last year's totals.

Girls State To Register

Graduation Exercises Set Today At Ohio Boys State

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — It's graduation day today at Buckeye Boys State here, and registration day at Buckeye Girls State in Columbus.

The 1,050 high school boys attending the American Legion's 10-day school in self-government will each receive a lapel pin and certificate at graduation ceremonies.

The graduation address will be given by Robert H. Bangham of Columbus, a former president of the Boys State Board of Trustees.

Two boys will be named at the exercises to attend the Legion's Boys Nation in Washington, D. C., July 17-24.

Awards will be made to the outstanding boy in state government, to the top-rated county and city at Boys State and to four boys working in the judicial field.

The youthful lawmakers have been conducting the affairs of the imaginary government on the Ohio University campus.

When they leave today, they'll have participated in an exercise in which almost 18,000 boys have taken part over the past 22 years.

The Boys State General Assembly adjourned Friday after the House defeated a bill to legalize and licensed gambling, and passed a bill calling for placement of flasher signals at all unprotected railroad crossings.

Lt. Gov. Tom Logan of Columbiana said the Senate completed action on 15 bills and five joint resolutions, including one act setting up a Boys State budget for next year.

As Boys State folded its "tents" until next year, a female counterpart organization was getting ready for a similar exercise 75 miles to the northwest.

At Columbus, 860 high school girls, also full-bent on eight days of politicking, began unloading their gear today and registering for Buckeye Girls State on the Capital University campus.

With their number increased from 804 last year, the Girls Staters also will create an imaginary state government, complete with two counties and 18 cities.

Employing the two-party system —the Federalists and the Nationalists, the same as at Boys State— the girls will vie for the job of governor and other state, county and city positions.

Girls State, sponsored by the Ohio American Legion Auxiliary, will attract lassies from 87 of Ohio's 88 counties.

Midland Girl Scout Camp Set To Open Monday At Farm

Annual Day Camp of the Midland Area Girl Scouts will open Monday on the Brittain Farm and sessions will be held through Friday, "rain or shine." Brownies also will attend. Over 200 girls have registered.

"Wagon Trails" will be the theme.

Mrs. George Mastrovich of Ohio Township is chairman, and Mrs. Francis Crytzer director and Mrs. Frank Pillar assistant director.

The girls will leave on chartered buses at 8 a. m. and return home about 3:30 p. m. every day except Thursday, when the schedule will be 1:30 to 8:30 p. m.

Buses will pick up scouts Monday between 8 and 8:30 a. m. at the following stops: Logan school, Craft's corner, Mickey's Rd. or the Fairview-Industry Rd. and Barclay Hill Rd., all in Industry Township.

Stops in Ohio Township will include: Cavrich's store in Fairview, Ohioville fire house, Rice's store in Five Points, Fairview Rd., Fairview School, Pillars' corner, TV Tower Rd., Willowbrook Rd. and Tuscarawas Rd.

Stops in Midland will include Carnegie Library, bottom of steps at 1st St. School on Midland Ave. and Midland Heights Community Building.

Pennsylvania Probe Sought

HARRISBURG, — Republican Chairman George I. Bloom Friday demanded that the Lawrence Administration investigate the possibility that William L. Batt, Secretary of Labor and Industry, has violated the anti-macing act of 1939.

Bloom, in a telegram to Gov. David L. Lawrence, pointed out that the 1939 state law forbids a state official to "demand funds from subordinates with the understanding, express or implied, that the same money" is to be used for political purposes.

The GOP chairman cited a statement by Robert Yoho, fired earlier this week for alleged participation in political collections from Beaver County highways contractors, along with Samuel G. Neff, that Secretary Batt had directed ticket sales and set quotas for $100-per-plate campaign fund dinners.

Get Record Money

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Local governments received a record amount of Ohio liquor license money this year, Auditor James A. Rhodes reported Friday. With more than 2¼ million dollars distributed during the final quarter, 920 wet municipalities and townships received a total of $9,010,368 during the bookkeeping year ending this month. The sum, which comes from liquor permit holders' license fees, is $739,147 higher than last year's.

Living Costs Hit New Peak During May

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs hit a new peak in May.

Small rises in prices for practically all types of consumer goods lifted the Labor Department's cost index one-tenth of one per cent from the April level.

At 124 per cent of the 1947-49 base period, the index was the highest it has ever rached.

And the prospect is for a further small increase during the summer months.

In reporting the figures Friday, the Labor Department said spendable earnings of factory workers, meaning their pay after federal tax deductions, also hit a record.

The average for the factory worker heading a family of four was $81.03 a week. It was $73.49 for the single factory worker.

These earnings each were 35 cents higher than the record set in April.

The department said the rise in spendable earnings was due both to longer working hours and higher pay rates.

City Business Still Maintains Lead Over '58

Although the effect of a 23-day pottery strike still showed up in the May indices, East Liverpool business and industrial activity finished the first five months of 1959 at levels generally ahead of the comparable period of 1958, the Chamber of Commerce reported today in its monthly summary of conditions.

Ten indices stand at points well ahead of their positions at the same time last year. Declines were shown in three. In a comparison of April and May activity, 5 indices showed gains and 8 dropped.

Despite the drop in personal income resulting from the pottery strike — which ended in mid-May — sales tax receipts last month hit levels 27.5 per cent ahead of April. The collections last month were $64,258 against $50,383 in April. In the first 5 months of the year, the collections stand at $260,618, up 16.6 per cent from the $223,640 shown at the same time in 1958.

Industrial payrolls at 11 plants stand at $5,088,929 for the first 5 months, off 7.8 per cent from the $5,522,002 recorded at the same time in 1958. Payrolls in May totaled $688,151, down 39.2 per cent from the $1,131,563 shown in April.

The pottery strike showed its effect on both April and May indices. Although it was settled on May 7, most of the workers were not back to their trades until the following week.

The plants had 3,793 on their payrolls in May, a decline of 12.7 per cent from the 4,343 listed in April. Employment at the 11 plants has averaged 4,159 monthly so far in 1959, down 5.4 per cent from the 4,398 average maintained in the first 5 months of 1958.

New passenger car registrations in Columbiana County jumped to 1,374 for the first 5 months of 1959, a gain of 28.5 per cent over the 1,069 recorded at the same time in 1958. New car sales totaled 271 last month, down 5.2 per cent from April's 286.

Sales of used cars hit 885 in May, off 11.1 per cent from the 996 listed in April. They stand at 4,511 for the first 5 months of 1959, but no comparative statistics are available for the same period of 1958.

The city's parking meter receipts stand at $23,499 for the first 5 months of the year, down 6.1 per cent from the $25,033 shown at the same time last year. They hit $4,820 in May, off 23.8 per cent from the $6,322 reported in April.

The city's relief case load fell from 82 in April to 75 in May, a decline of 8.5 per cent. It has averaged 89 monthly so far in 1959, down 16.8 per cent from the 107 average shown at the same time in 1958.

Inbound railroad carloadings stand at 1,552 for the first 5 months of 1959, a gain of 42.1 per cent over the 1,092 shown in the corresponding period of 1958. They totaled 271 in May, down 3.9 per cent from the 282 listed in April.

Outbound carloadings totaled 1,515 in the first 5 months of this year, a gain of 44.3 per cent over the 1,050 shown at the same time in 1958. They hit 290 in May, a gain of 8.6 per cent over the 267 shown in April.

Dam 8 at Newell locked through 1,678 boats in the first 5 months of 1959, up 17 per cent from the 1,434 tows listed at the same time in 1958. It listed 447 tows in May, down 2.4 per cent from the 458 reported in April. The traffic so far this year represents 7,614,105 tons of cargo, a gain of 26.5 per cent over the 6,018,800 shown at the same time in 1958. The tonnage in May was 1,780,000, up 2.2 per cent from April's 1,741,105.

Postal receipts stand at $102,442 for the first 5 months of 1959, a gain of 23.1 per cent over the $83,222 shown at the same time in 1958. They hit $15,940 in May, off 22 per cent from April's $20,440.

Bank clearings stand at $16,153,904 for the first 5 months of the year, up 4.1 per cent from the $15,522,296 shown at the same time in 1958. They totaled $3,096,289 in May, down 9.8 per cent from the $3,431,084 listed for the preceding month.

Bank debits have averaged $21,190,302 monthly so far in 1959, up 6 per cent from the $19,994,741 average maintained during the same period of 1958. They totaled $21,786,035 in May, up 1.2 per cent from the $21,517,125 shown in April.

During 1943 the only pennies minted in the United States were zinc-coated steel. This was to conserve copper for war defense purposes.

Sales Tax Revenues In County Still Climb

Weekly sales tax collections continue to show an improvement over the same period of last year in Columbiana County but cumulative collections for the current fiscal year are slightly behind, according to a report by State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson at Columbus.

Collections for the week ending June 6 totaled $42,668.05, compared with $33,841.24 the same period last year. Collections for the fiscal year to date total $1,725,411.20, compared with the $1,734,078.16 the preceding period. Ferguson said that over the state sales tax collections continue to show marked gains over last year's totals.

Girls State To Register

Graduation Exercises Set Today At Ohio Boys State

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — It's graduation day today at Buckeye Boys State here, and registration day at Buckeye Girls State in Columbus.

The 1,050 high school boys attending the American Legion's 10-day school in self-government will each receive a lapel pin and certificate at graduation ceremonies.

The graduation address will be given by Robert H. Bangham of Columbus, a former president of the Boys State Board of Trustees.

Two boys will be named at the exercises to attend the Legion's Boys Nation in Washington, D. C., July 17-24.

Awards will be made to the outstanding boy in state government, to the top-rated county and city at Boys State and to four boys working in the judicial field.

The youthful lawmakers have been conducting the affairs of the imaginary government on the Ohio University campus.

When they leave today, they'll have participated in an exercise in which almost 18,000 boys have taken part over the past 22 years.

The Boys State General Assembly adjourned Friday after the House defeated a bill to legalize and licensed gambling, and passed a bill calling for placement of flasher signals at all unprotected railroad crossings.

Lt. Gov. Tom Logan of Columbiana said the Senate completed action on 15 bills and five joint resolutions, including one act setting up a Boys State budget for next year.

As Boys State folded its "tents" until next year, a female counterpart organization was getting ready for a similar exercise 75 miles to the northwest.

At Columbus, 860 high school girls, also full-bent on eight days of politicking, began unloading their gear today and registering for Buckeye Girls State on the Capital University campus.

With their number increased from 804 last year, the Girls Staters also will create an imaginary state government, complete with two counties and 18 cities.

Employing the two-party system —the Federalists and the Nationalists, the same as at Boys State— the girls will vie for the job of governor and other state, county and city positions.

Girls State, sponsored by the Ohio American Legion Auxiliary, will attract lassies from 87 of Ohio's 88 counties.

Midland Girl Scout Camp Set To Open Monday At Farm

Annual Day Camp of the Midland Area Girl Scouts will open Monday on the Brittain Farm and sessions will be held through Friday, "rain or shine." Brownies also will attend. Over 200 girls have registered.

"Wagon Trails" will be the theme.

Mrs. George Mastrovich of Ohio Township is chairman, and Mrs. Francis Crytzer director and Mrs. Frank Pillar assistant director.

The girls will leave on chartered buses at 8 a. m. and return home about 3:30 p. m. every day except Thursday, when the schedule will be 1:30 to 8:30 p. m.

Buses will pick up scouts Monday between 8 and 8:30 a. m. at the following stops: Logan school, Craft's corner, Mickey's Rd. or the Fairview-Industry Rd. and Barclay Hill Rd., all in Industry Township.

Stops in Ohio Township will include: Cavrich's store in Fairview, Ohioville fire house, Rice's store in Five Points, Fairview Rd., Fairview School, Pillars' corner, TV Tower Rd., Willowbrook Rd. and Tuscarawas Rd.

Stops in Midland will include Carnegie Library, bottom of steps at 1st St. School on Midland Ave. and Midland Heights Community Building.

Two overnights are scheduled Thursday and Friday. These will include nine troops. Pioneers will participate in both overnights. Second class scouts may stay Friday night.
